YESTERDAY . . . a day

of confusion
a ribbon-bedecked mum
a rainy night for football
a new found friend
a flunked exam
the loss of a friend
a smoke-filled gym, and a date to the prom.

YESTERDAY . . . a memory of a learning experience with a concerned teacher, and insight into the role of marriage, of home, and a family;

and, the experience of finding a new friend.

YESTERDAY was . . .

a traffic jam
a torn-up road
a mess
a squeeze and a noise
All in preparation for a new day.

YESTERDAY was . . .

a growing up period
a new prom dress
a treasured Valentine an unsold box of candy an unbelievable Senior picture the words to a song.

YESTERDAY was a rewarding friendship . . .

with an animal
with a parent
a coach
a teacher and Love.

With the sunset of yesterday's memories of all-to-familiar places, people and events, there came an exploration for a brighter tomorrow. This exploration held the sunrise and . . .

TODAY was born.

TODAY is different.

TODAY we reach out to people's needs.
TODAY the sun illuminates the wings of a butterfly.

TODAY the sun comes up like a god surfacing the sea.

TODAY children observe a foolish holiday.

TODAY is the new born. Freedom from YESTERDAY.

TODAY children play with no thought of TOMORROW.

TODAY we are in love with TODAY.

TODAY. More questions keep emerging.
Why an absence of peace?
Why must boundaries exist?
Why movie ratings?
Why rules?
Why?

TODAY is ours. It brings deeper and closer thoughts of dependency.
A dependency upon heritages—
yours and mine.
A dependency upon patriotism—
whatever the base—
admiration, love, or respect.
And, dependency upon a concerted effort for conservation.

TODAY some of us experience a new found peace—attained by an unselfish search for God.
A peace not attained through formalized religion, memorized prayers or prescribed rituals—

But in letting go.

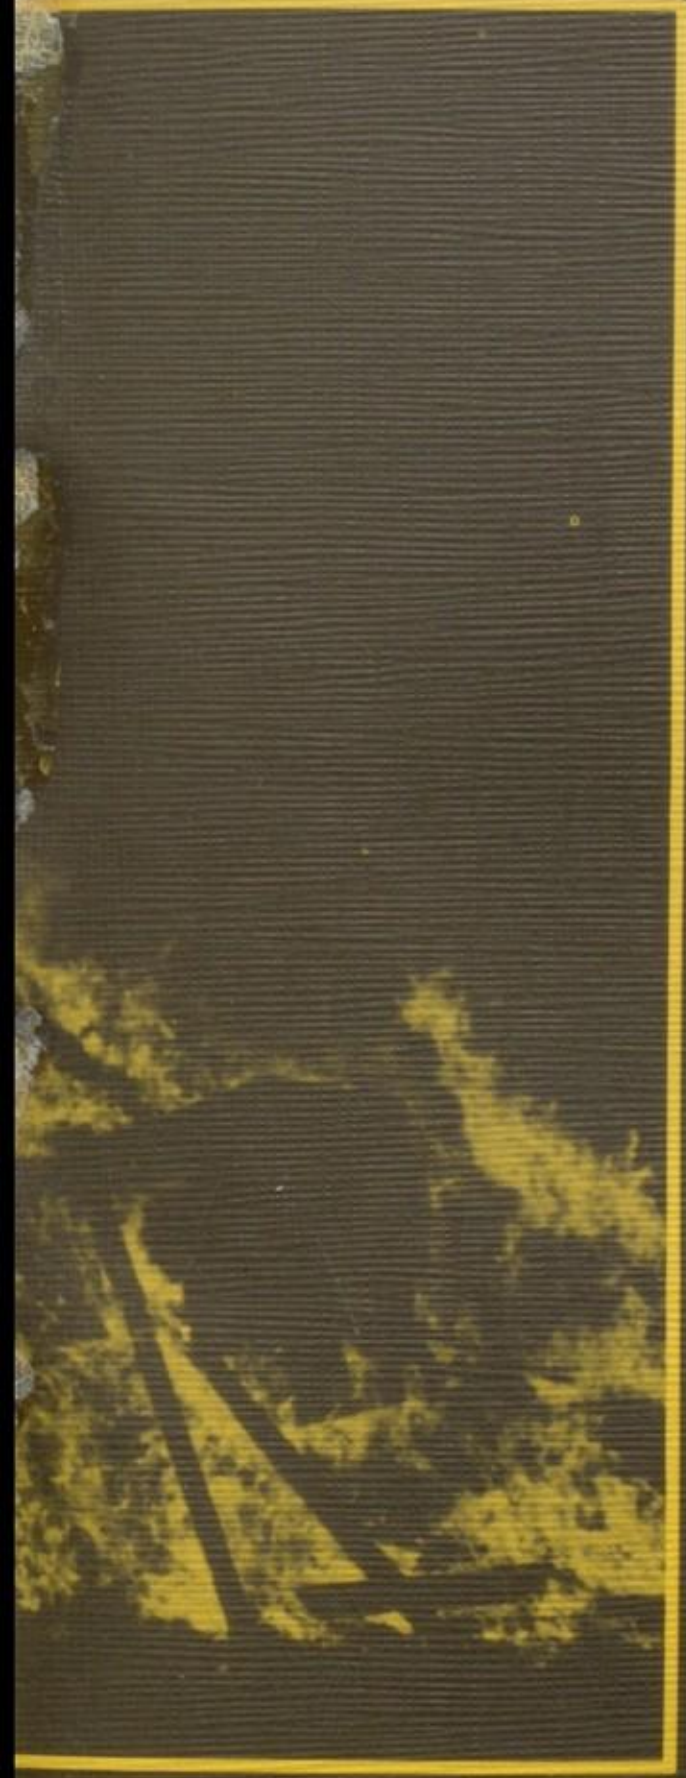

What does TOMORROW hold?
We can only predict.

Who holds TOMORROW?
Only One.

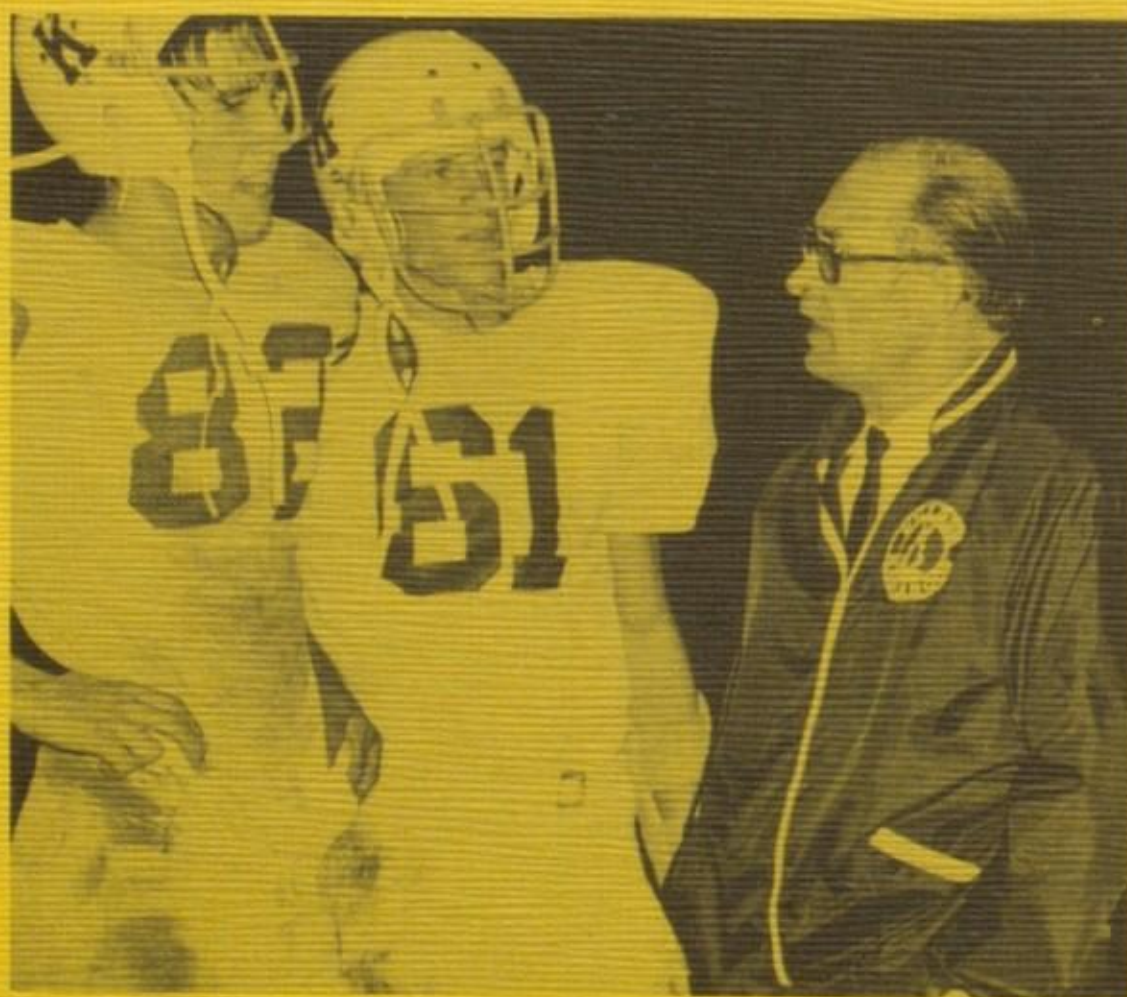

ACTIVITIES

It's a Football Friday!

Roo band members' faces reflect the mixed moods of Friday night encounters.

Bill Bishop and Charles Hamilton discuss the team's anxious moments with Roo fan Mr. Elmer Billinger.

Kangarettis Jan McDaniel, Debbie Parker, Debbie Reeves, Donna Carroza and Martha Bunnell

Mr. Ira Ashworth is escorted on the field by Sharon Barnes during pre-game activities on Dad's Night, Nov. 12.

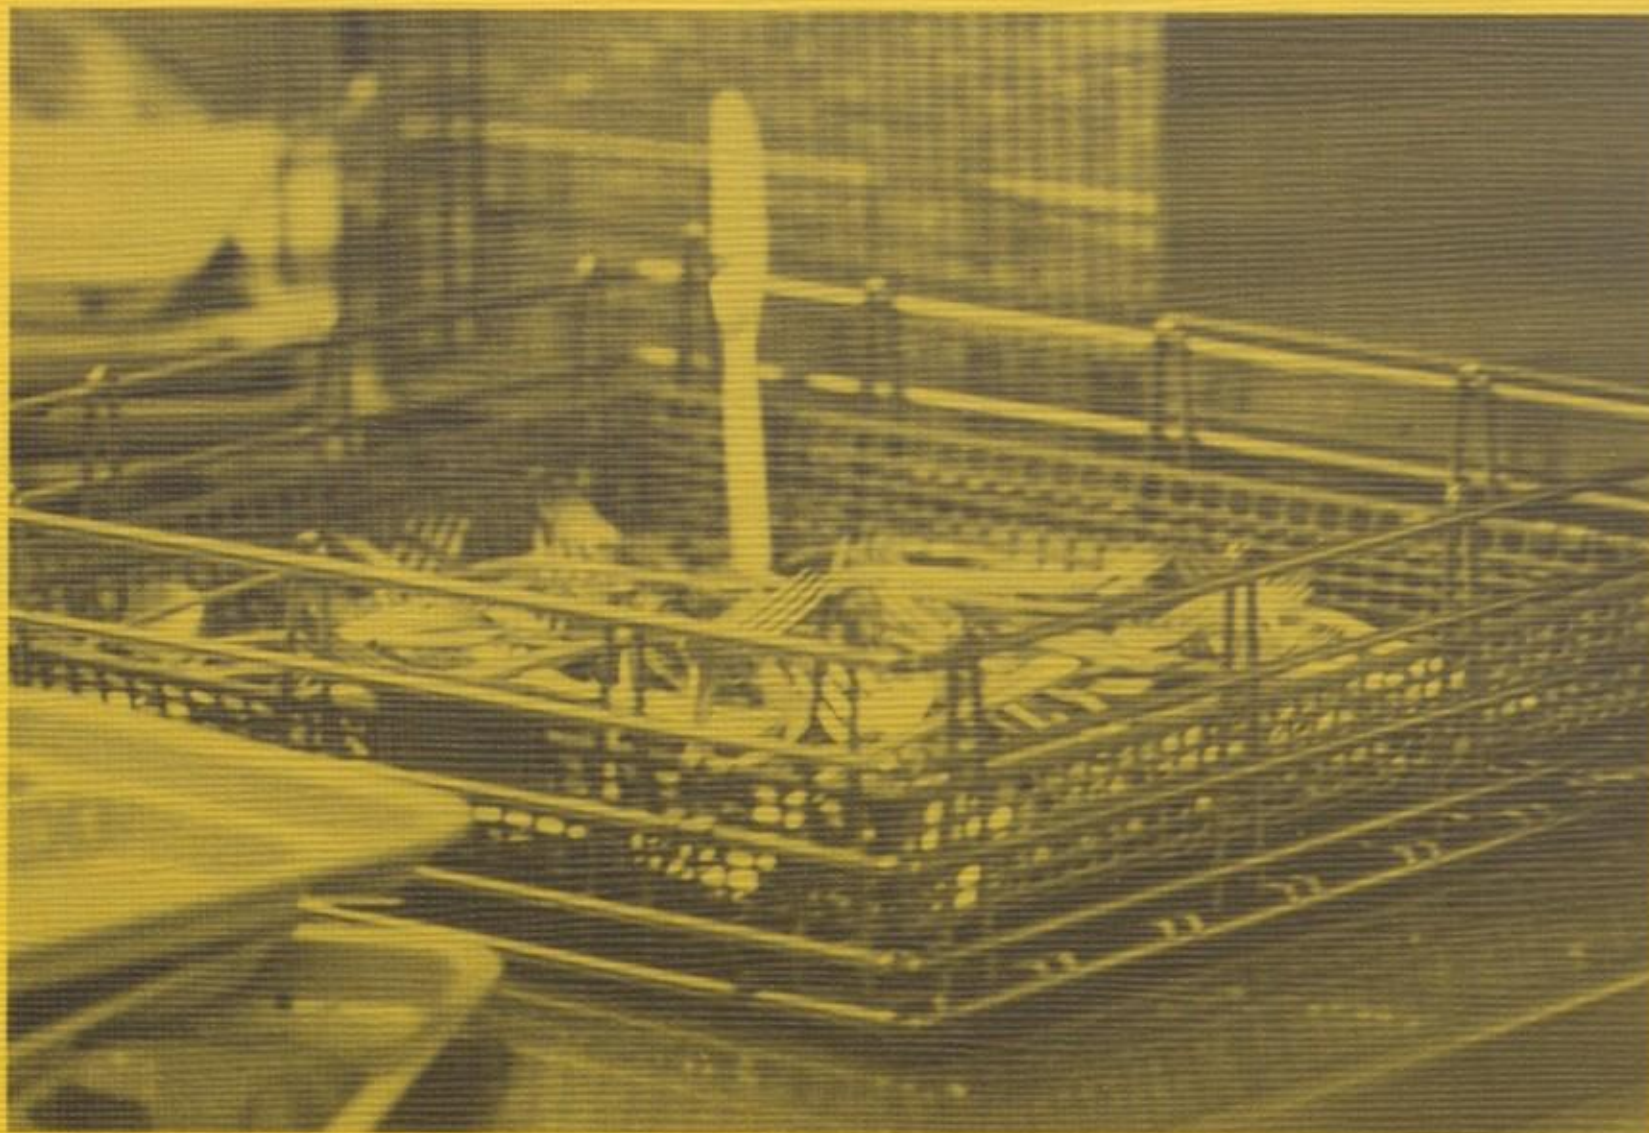

The football players' bench gives a behind-the-scenes impression of the game.

limber up before performing at the Dallas Carter clash.

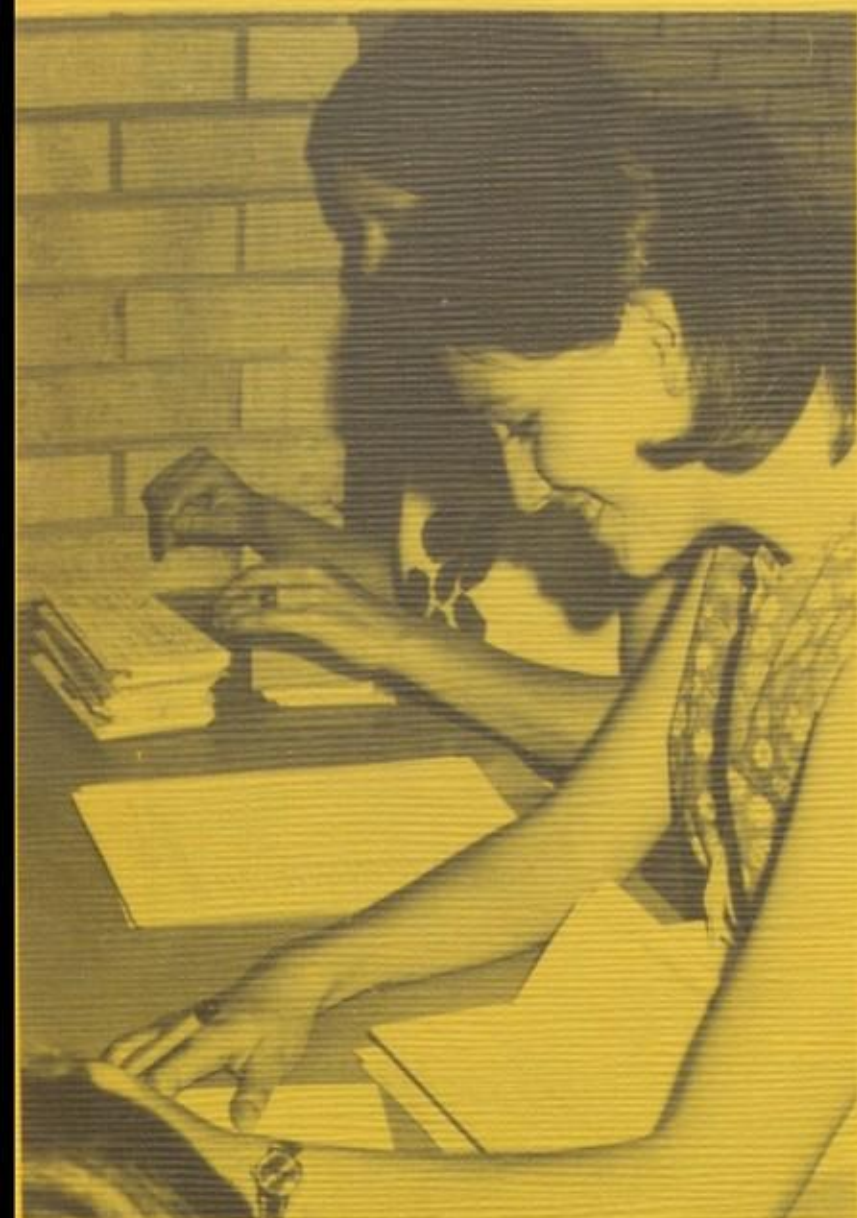

Lunch—Friends, Food and Fun

A lone piece of silver awaits the lunch room's technique of recycling.

Short orders of sandwiches, chips, and ice cream are bought at the crowded concession stand.

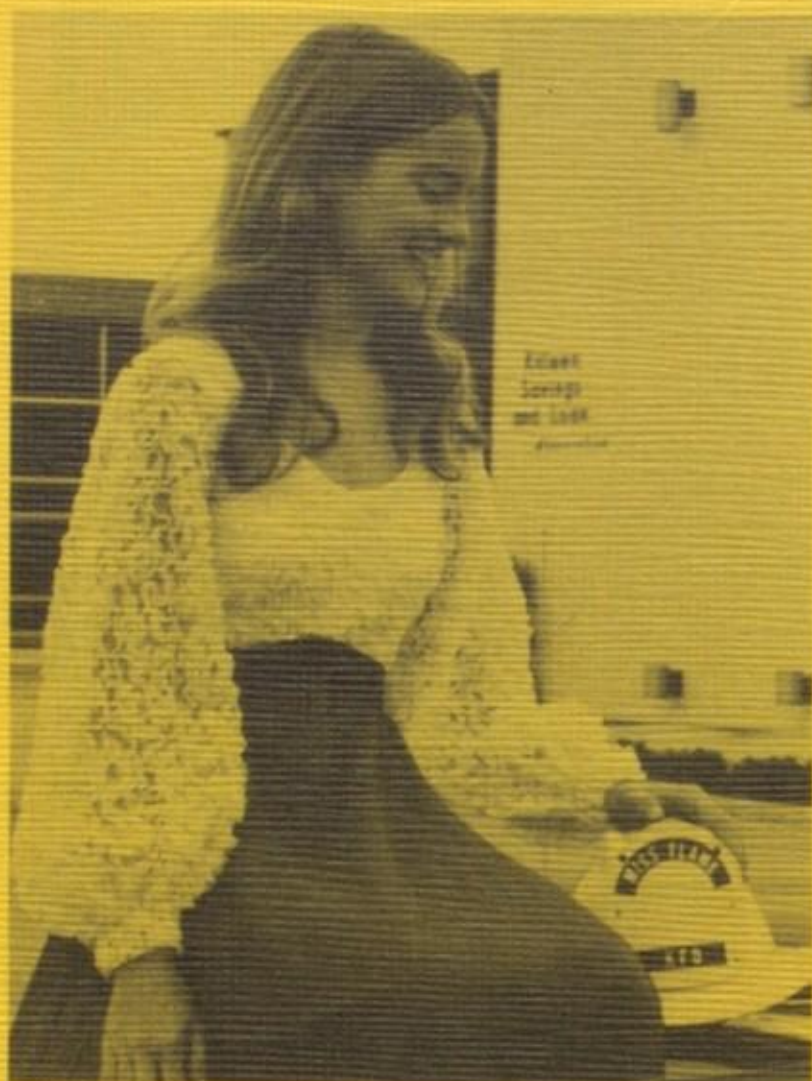

Members of Creative Civics, Barbara Melton and Linda Glass, aid sophomores in voting.

The "extras" of cold drinks and candy give variety to school lunches.

Lunchtime games provide a different type of concentration.

In pre-game ceremonies with Dallas Skyline High on November 12, Miss Diane Thomas was the first black football sweetheart to be crowned at Killeen High School. In October, Pat Sublousky topped finalists Nancy Wade and Missy Carr for Miss Flame of Killeen. Later in the year, Cyndee Dunavant won over twenty-one senior girls for the coveted title of Miss Roo.

Football Sweetheart, Diane Thomas, beams as Roo Co-Captain Pat McNeil congratulates her.

Brenda Smith smiles happily after being presented by Richard Gormely as the 1971-1972 Band Sweetheart.

Smiles of Excitement

Debbie Odom, Miss Mary Hardin-Baylor, congratulates Killeen Junior Miss, Pam Maurer.

Shown in her talent presentation, Karen Collar ties for Miss Congeniality.

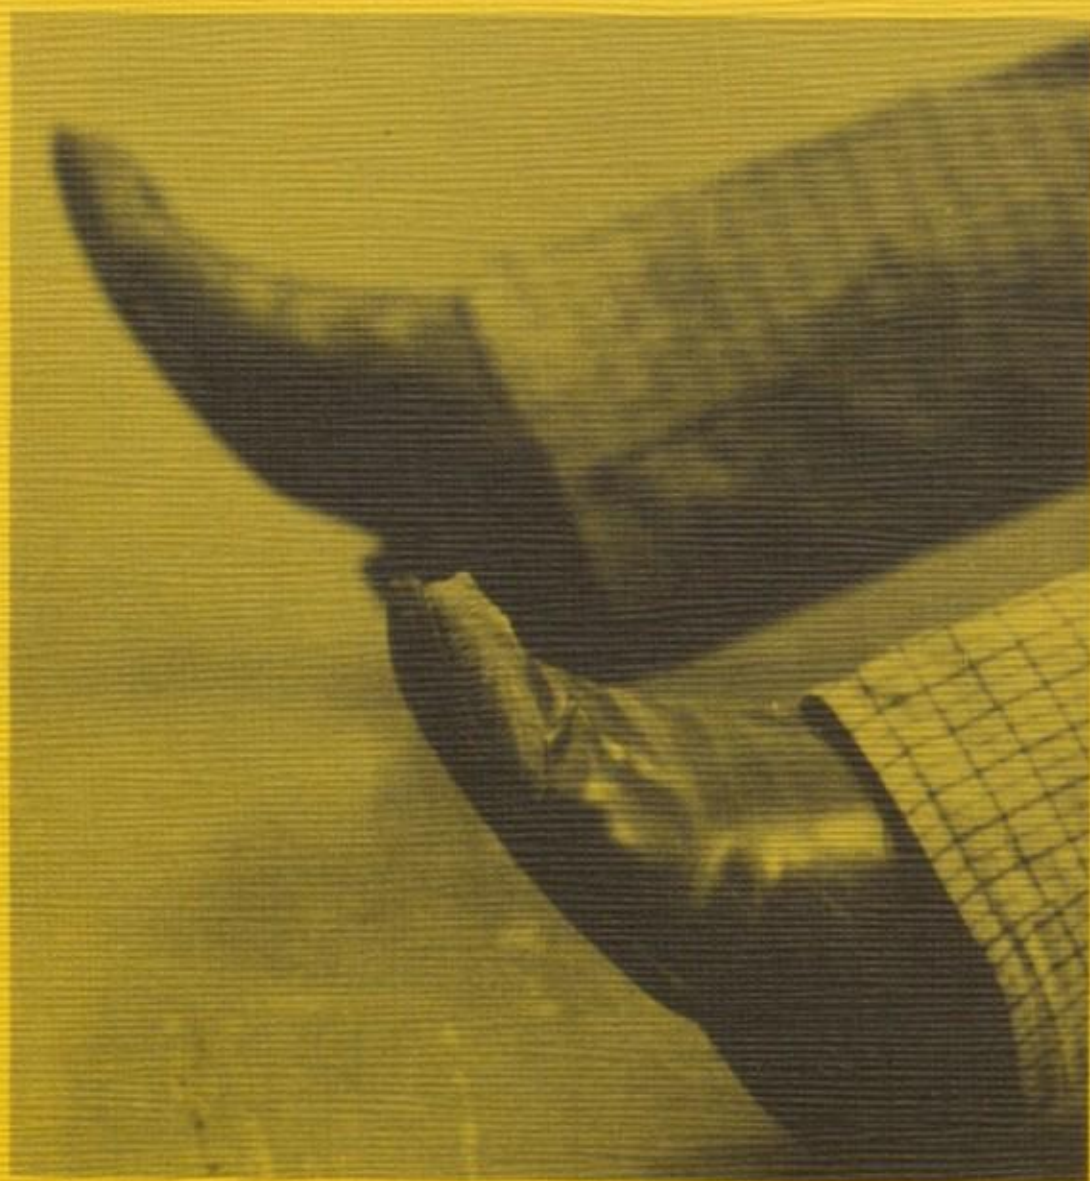

Vala Graffham reigns again this year as Miss Flame of Harker Heights.

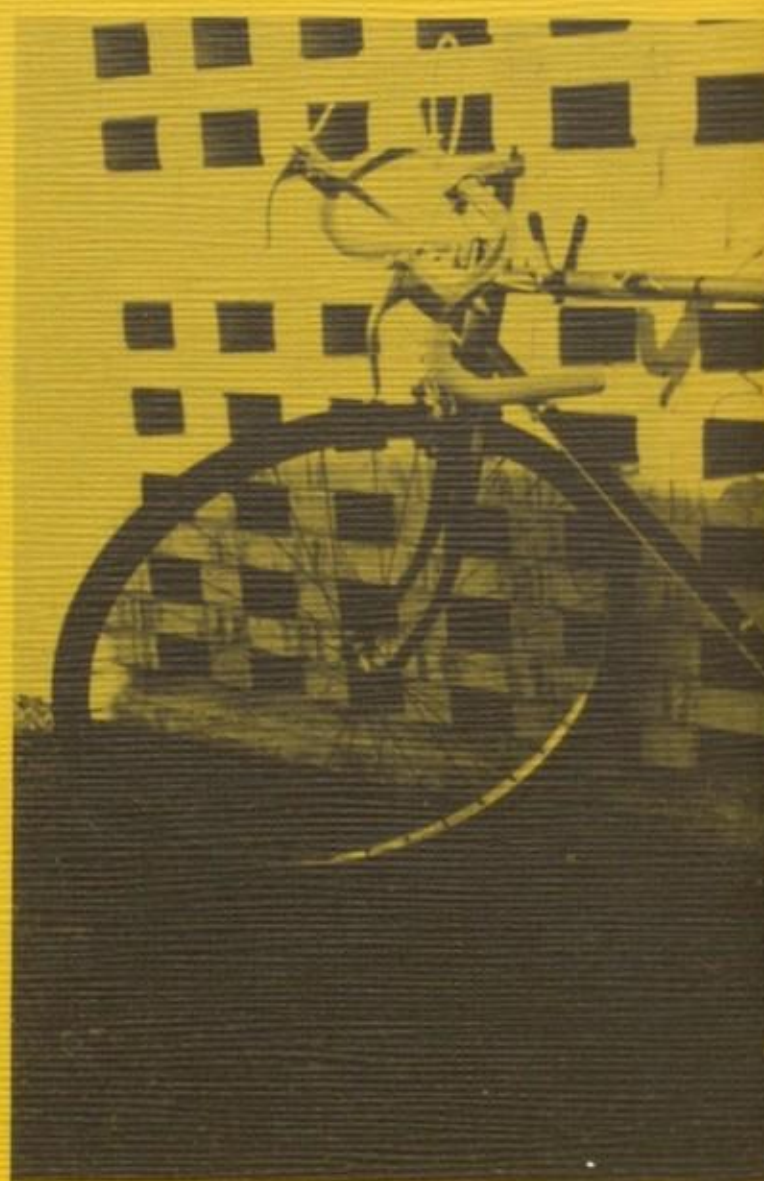

Diana Sublousky shares the title of Miss Congeniality, in the Killeen Junior Miss pageant.

When all else fails, you can always rely on "old faithful."

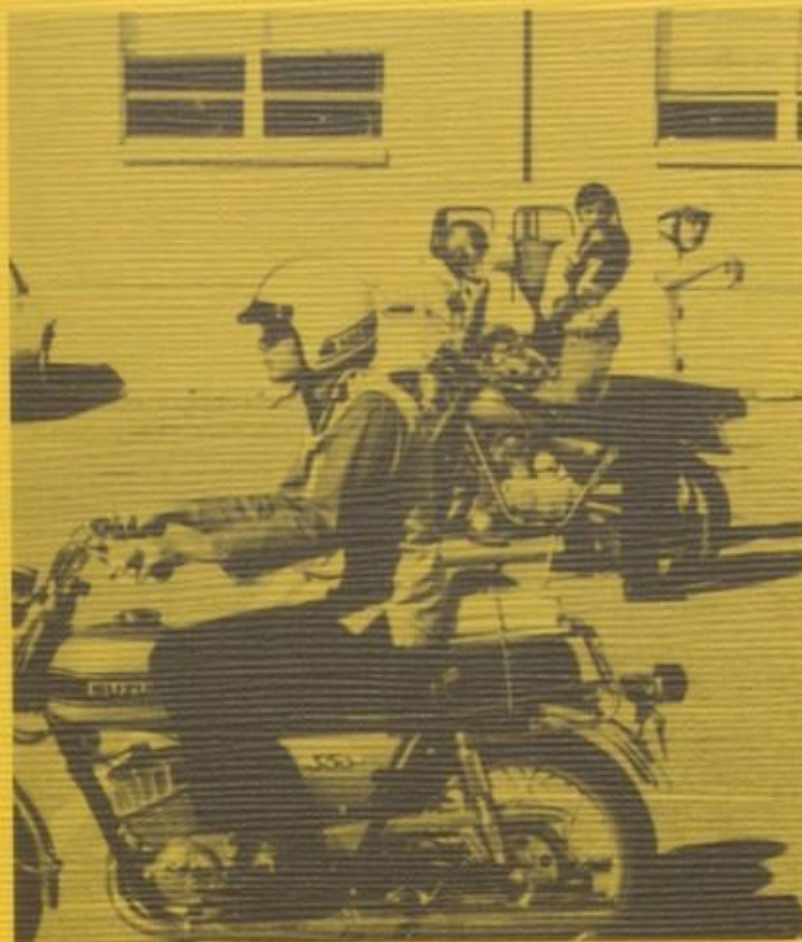

Often, it seems, the most dependable way to get where you're going is your own two feet.

A ten speed bicycle can serve as a means of

Mechanized Mania

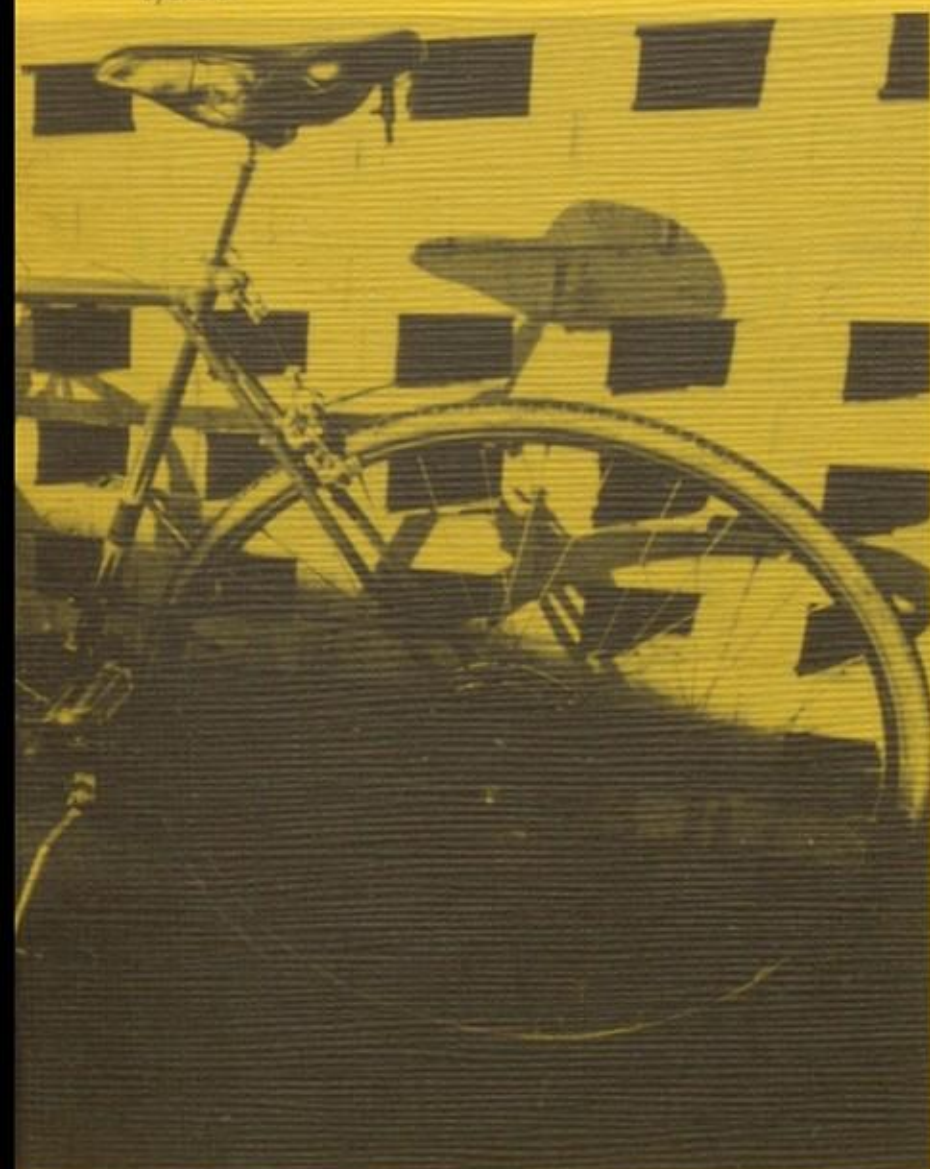

Getting ahead of the 3:45 traffic is a daily task for the cyclists.

Getting to and from school was often a challenge. Weather, bugs, and automobiles were the biggest obstacles to the two-wheelers with bicycles experiencing a revival of interest this year.

Finding your parking space, being sure your lights were off, and getting to class on time were often tricky. A challenge in itself was finding a place to sit on the overcrowded yellow marvel. Multiple bus stops and unpredictable departure schedules added to the confusion of that not so routine aspect of school transportation.

The modes of transportation have changed through the years—from horse and buggy to dune buggy.

exercise, enjoyment, and transportation.

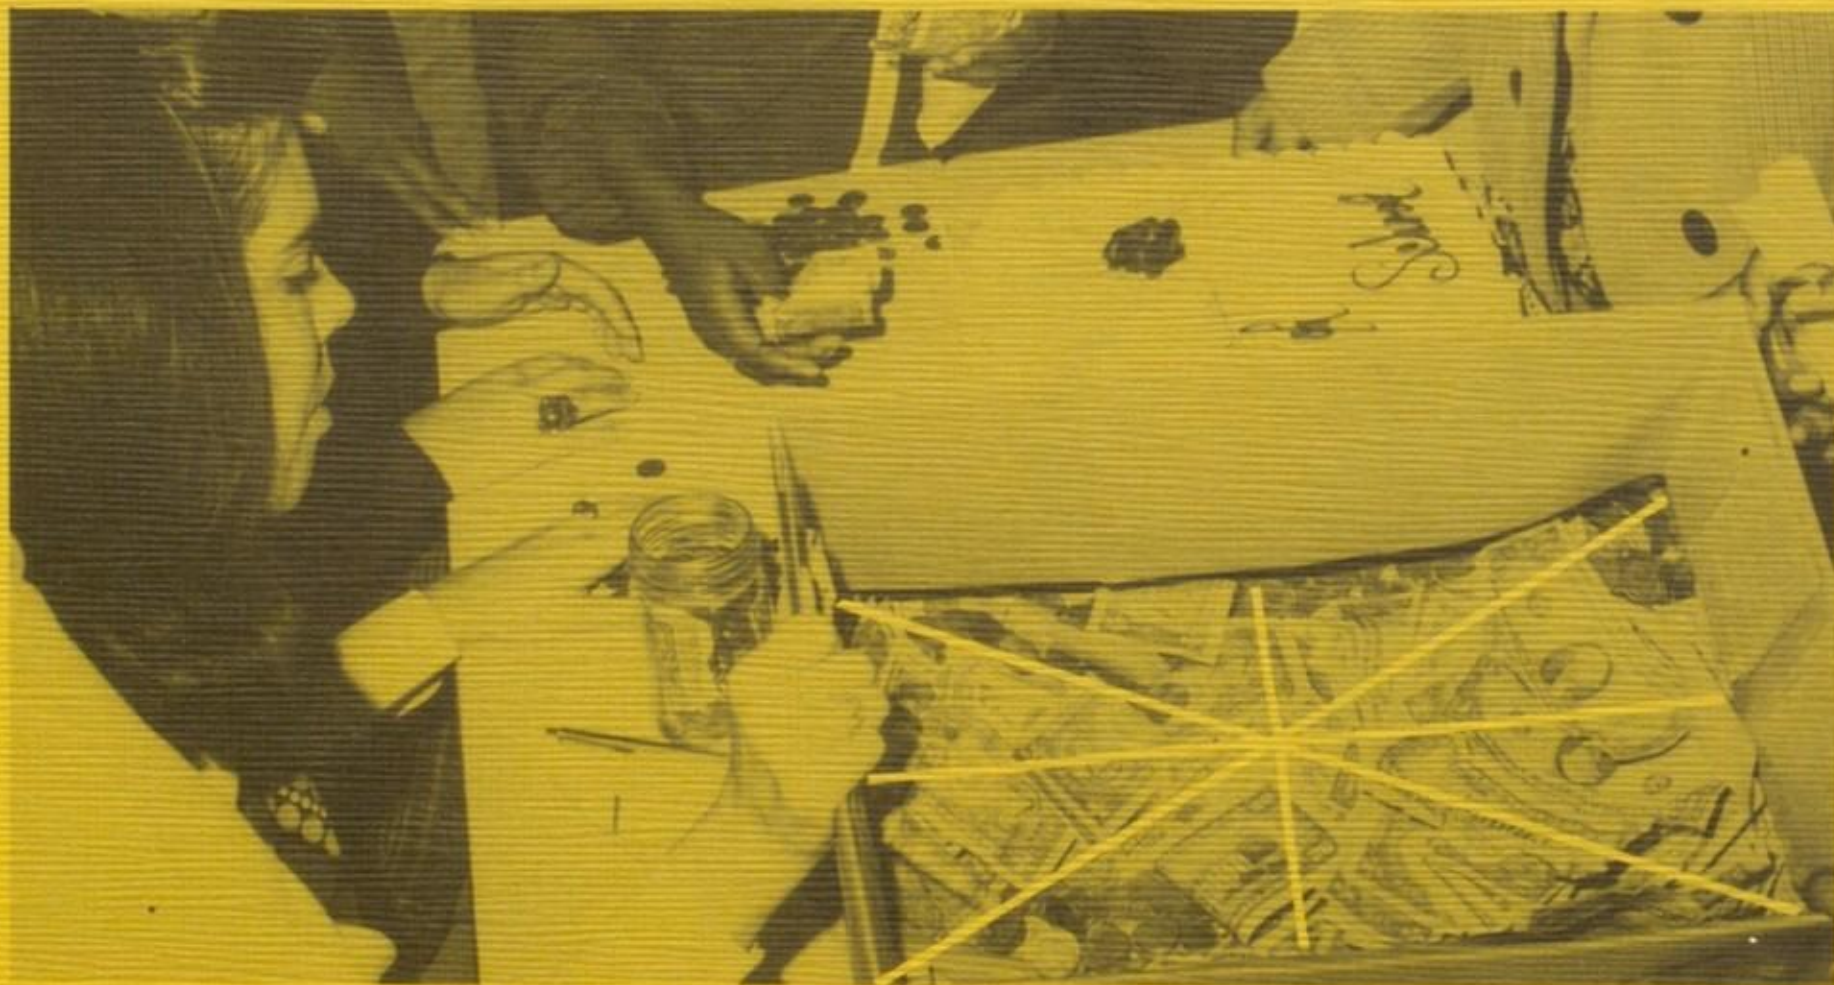

Roo Marketplace

After selling a 1972 yearbook, Mark Ervi hands a customer his receipt.

Roo Review staff members find that the student center is a convenient place to sell their latest edition.

Student Council Treasurer, Marilyn K. Moore, discovers that counting mason-jars of money can be hectic and confusing.

Students save fifty cents by purchasing football tickets before the game.

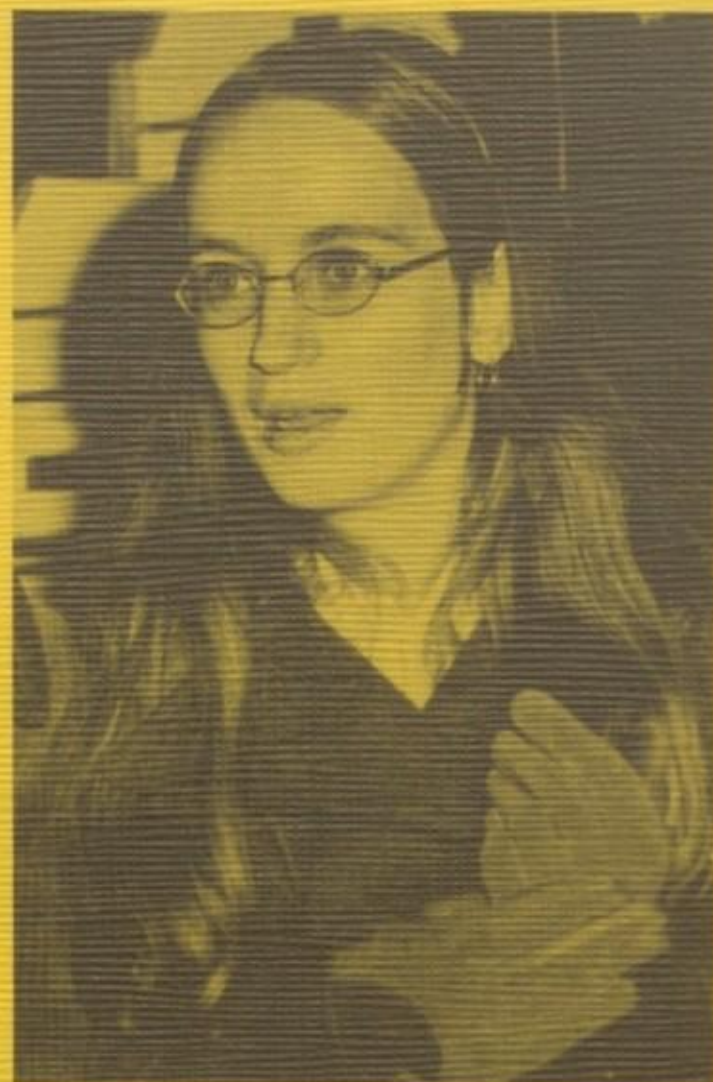

Selling spirit ribbons is one of the National Honor Society's projects to help promote Roo spirit.

During lunch periods and before school, the north student center was the hub of activity. Almost all campus organizations on some occasion manned tables, selling everything from cookies to Roo license plates. Many students supplemented their daily lunch with a variety of home-baked goodies on sale almost every week.

Roos at Face Value

As the Roos make another first down, Cathy Houseman looks forward to the next play.

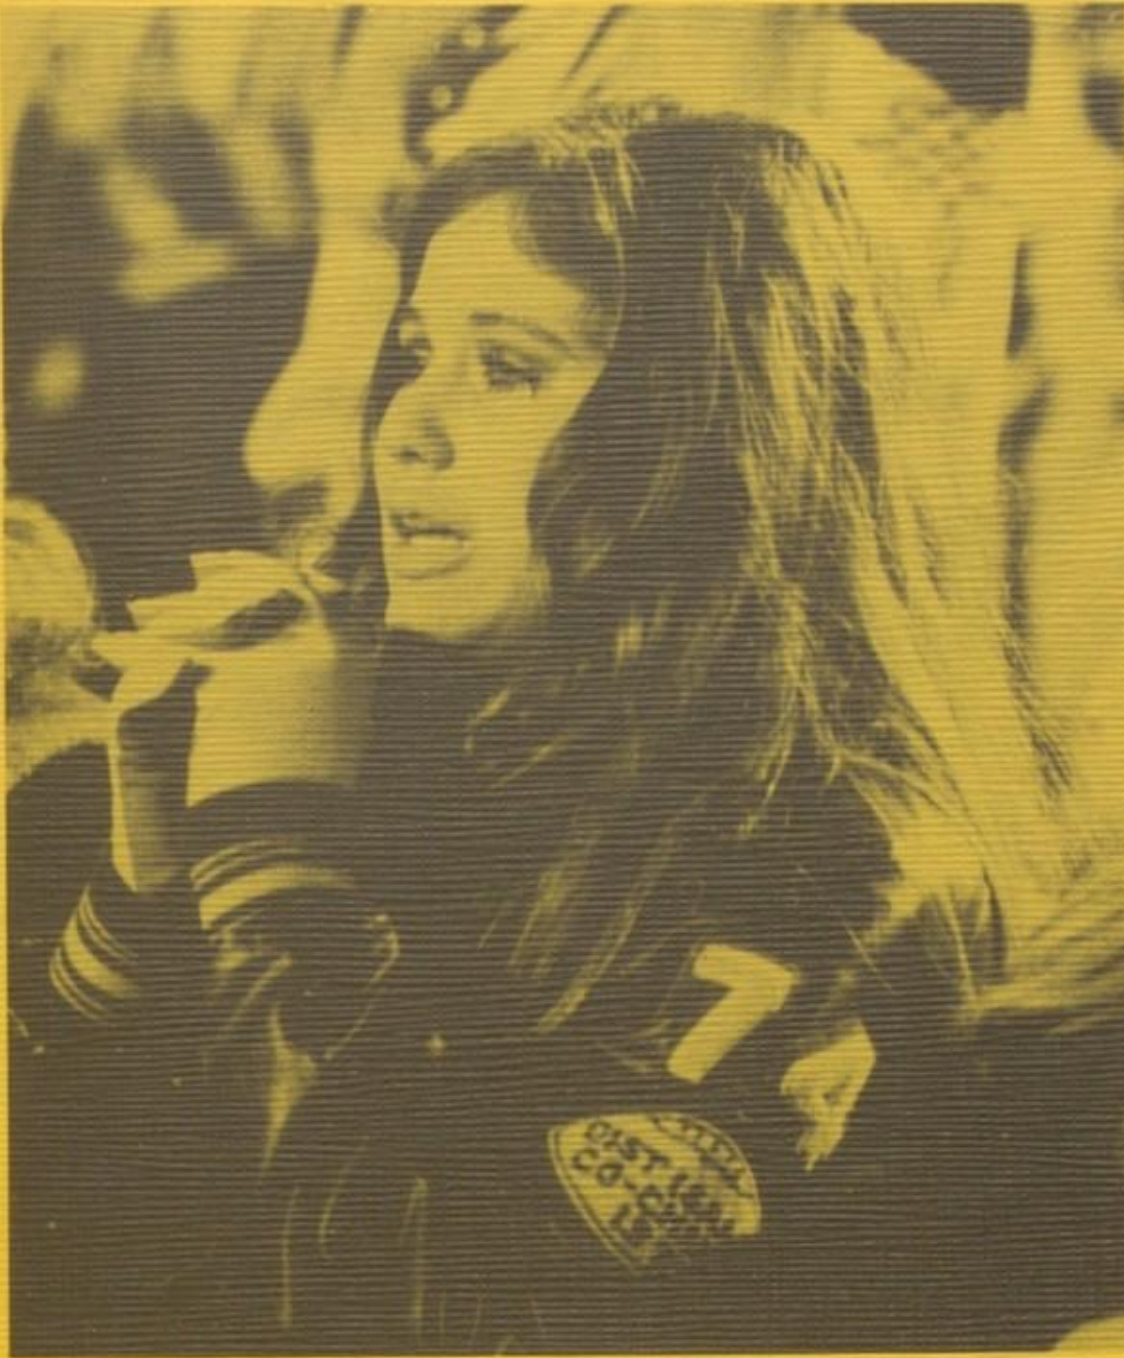

Connie Miller waits anxiously for the second half of the game.

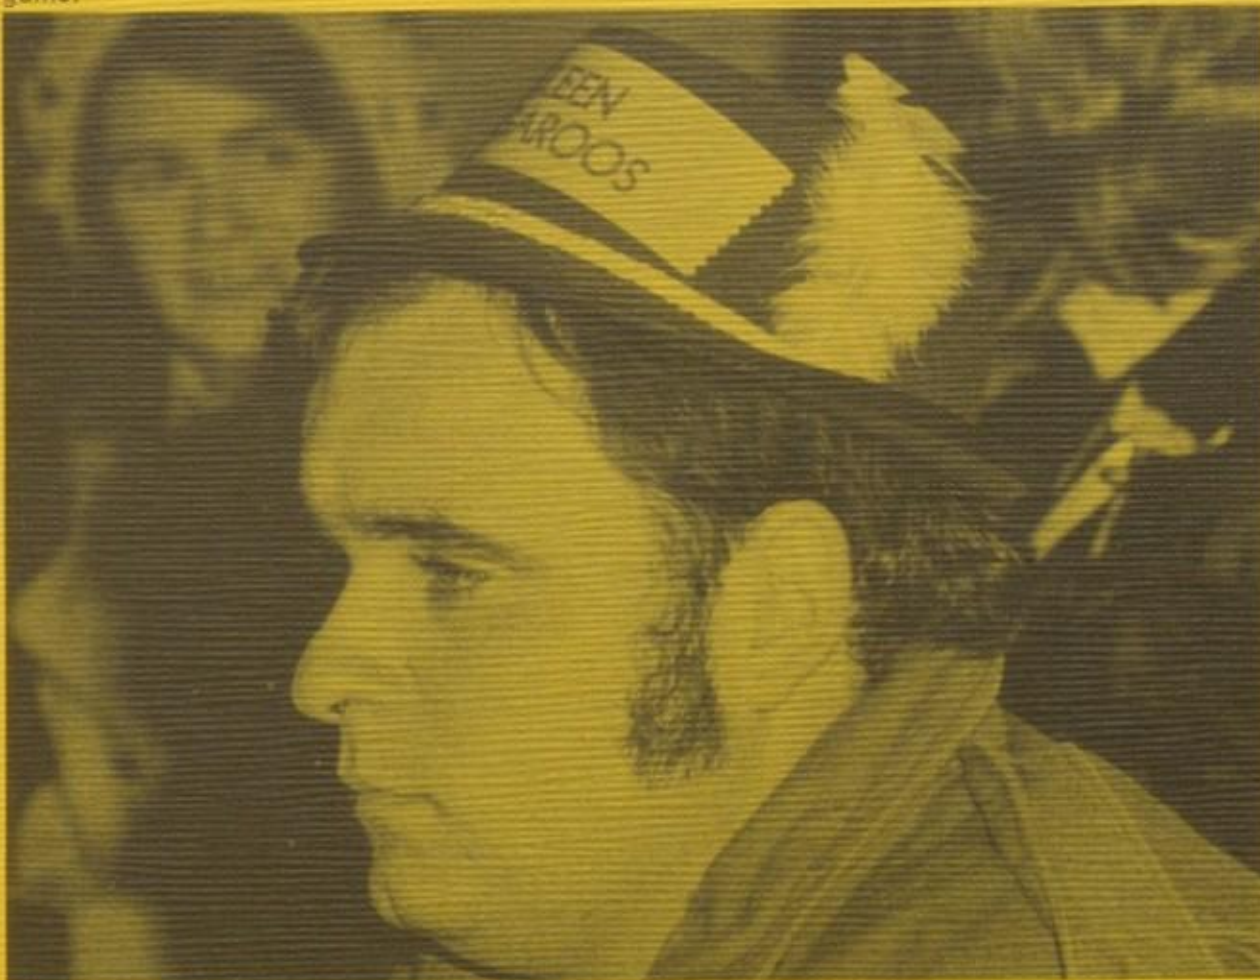

Miles and miles of at least twenty-four chartered buses, carrying high-spirited Roo fans, lead the way to the famous Cotton Bowl in Dallas, Friday, December 10 for the Regional clash between Killeen and Dallas Carter. The Roo band was the highlight of the mid-way point of the close battle for victory. The final half ticked slowly while the crisp, cold weather wasn't noticed until the Roo fans faced the fact their season was drawing to a close.

"Little Kanga", Dana Brock, rallies Roo spirit at pep rallies and football games.

Roo fan James Spielman thinks of the long ride home from the Cottonbowl.

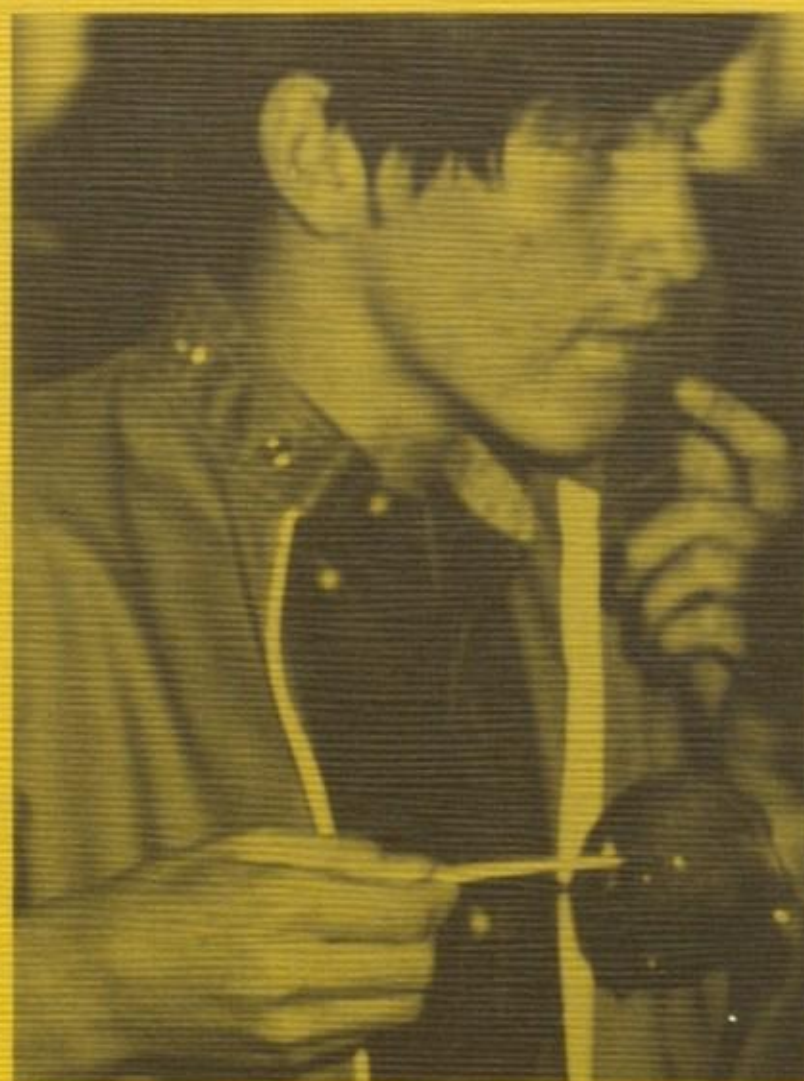

Caramel apples—or candy apples— whichever a person prefers to call them were a favorite at lunchtime. The V.O.E. sold candy apples during the week of Halloween. Students often finished off their lunch with this rare treat. Most people, no matter what they had decided earlier found out—candy apples were tasty, gooey, sticky, but good.

Carolyn Mansfield relaxes at lunch while enjoying a candy apple.

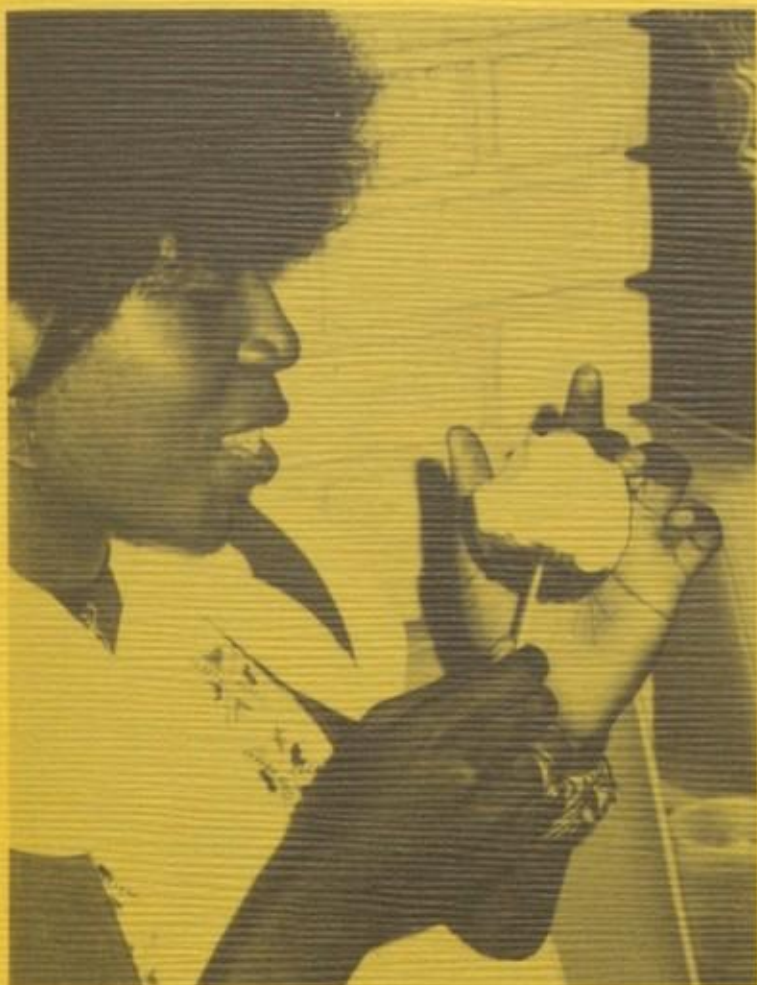

Marilyn Tucker decides to brave the initial bite.

Caramel strings are just one obstacle to eating a caramel apple.

Gooney . . . But Good

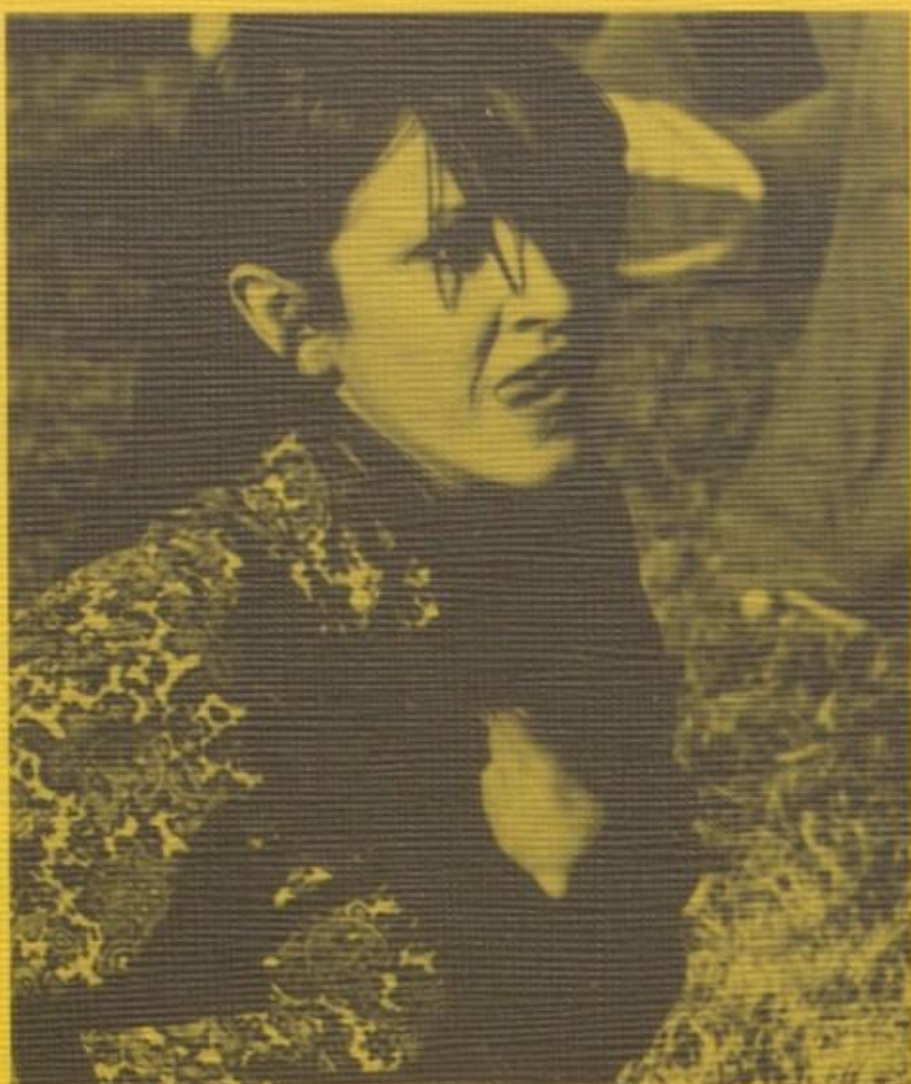

Yvonne Alexander seems to wonder where to attack the apple next.

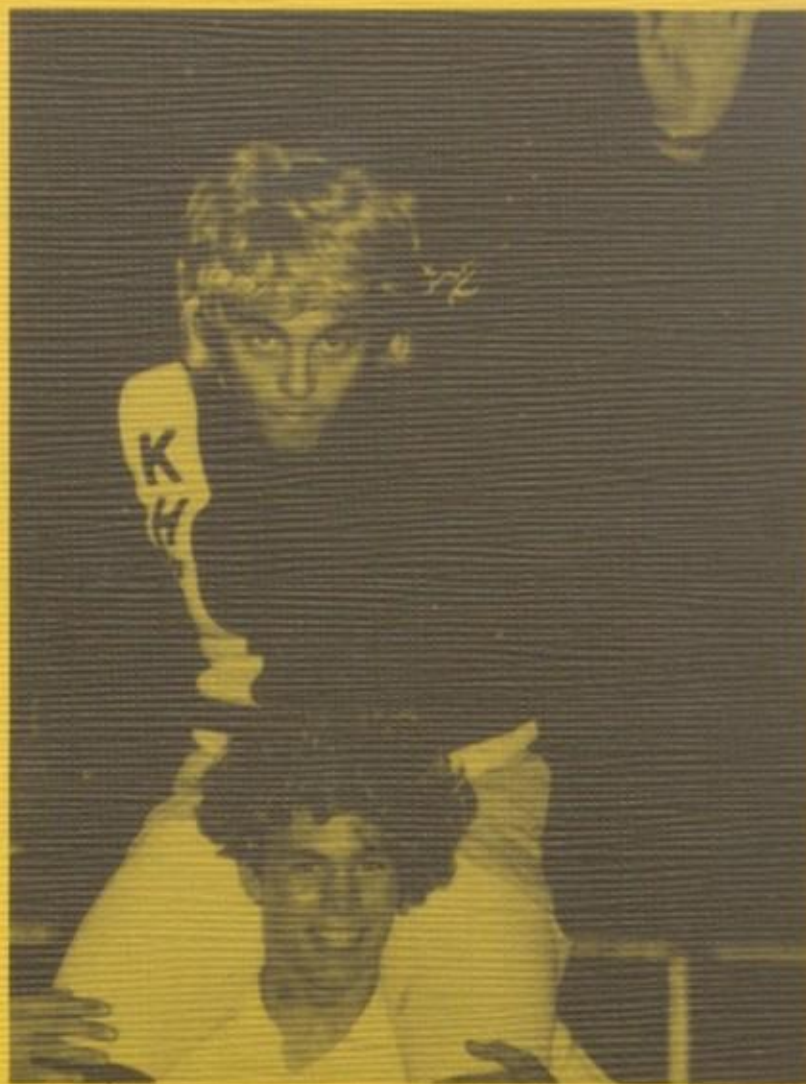

Patty Wright finishes her dessert just in time for her fifth period class.

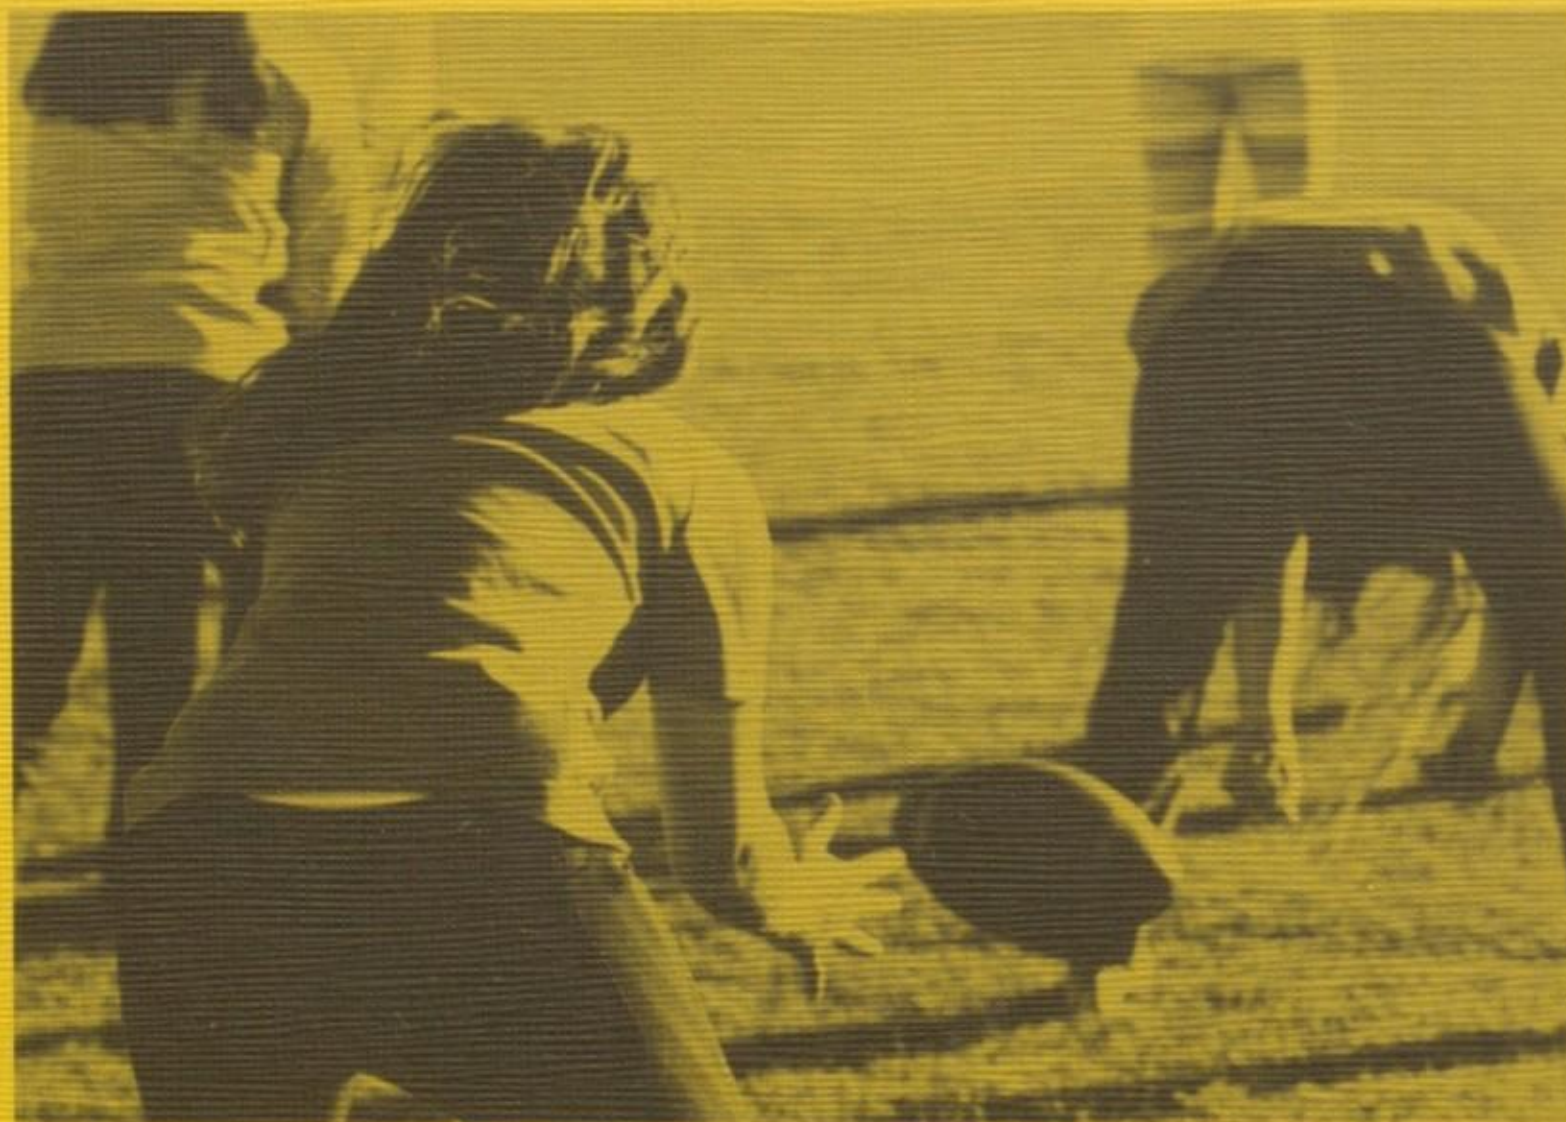

Even though her attention is temporarily distracted, Debbie Yowell doesn't miss a single bite.

Brenda Patterson, along with other "puffers," found out that the coaches had planned a rough practice schedule.

Cheerleaders for the 1972 powderpuff playoff were "Leona" Shroeder and "Andrea" Clapp.

Centering the ball is a technique which requires much practice.

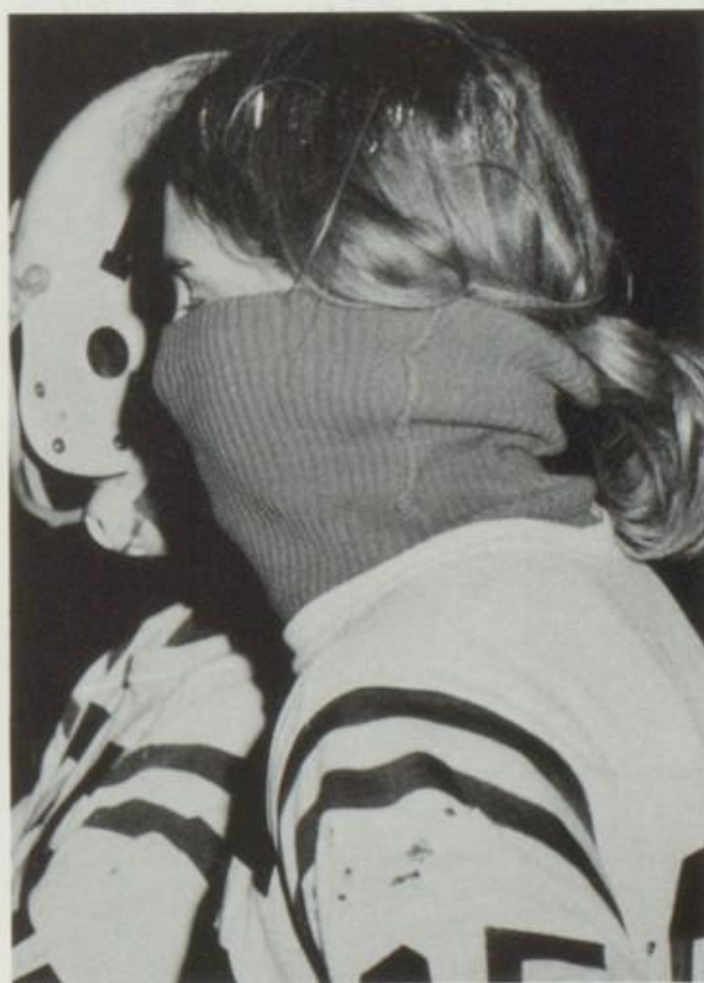

Try It, You'll Like It!

Pat Sublousky chalks up another touchdown for the juniors.

Cheryl Belk and Edith Kelly mix work with play while they practice receiving.

Cold weather brings out the ingenuity of warm-blooded powderpuff players.

The 624 Seniors of 1972 represented the largest graduating class of Killeen High School. As they reflect upon this year, they remembered with pride, their outstanding achievements. They backed the Roos as they went to quarter-finals in football and supported the basketball team as they played in the regional finals after being named District champs. Not only did they donate excellent athletes, but they also demonstrated the skills of their talented drama students. The Senior play, "The Miracle Worker," was an overwhelming success. Working together, they were able to display various comical routines in the Senior follies. This spirited class of '72 by far surpassed the classes of previous years.

Yesterdays Don't Worry Juniors

The Junior Class of 1971-72 school year was outstanding in the capacity of leadership, spirit and scholarship; plus the ability to cope with any situation. Not only did they provide some of the most alive students in school, they also produced a number of the most involved. The Junior Class had fine representatives in all forms of athletic competition—both male and female. Candy sales netted the class $2300 for the financing of the Junior-Senior Prom. The theme, "Roaring Twenties" was carried out with three colors—red, white, and black.

Sophs Set Trend for Tomorrow

The Sophomore class of '71 represented K.H.S. well this year. Being the largest class of all time, these 1029 students were able to participate in the first orientation held during August. After learning a little about the school from the Student Council and members of the Administration, they were given a tour of the classrooms. In addition, they were the largest voting class with the greatest number of registered voters. With this as a foundation, they were the decisive factor in the elections. These students had much more to be proud of as they produced a strong cheering section during the pep rallies. Along with their democratic voice and tremendous spirit, they also played an active role in sports and clubs while continuing to learn what it means to be a part of Killeen High School. This class truly showed its leadership and provides an excellent example for future sophomores to follow.

ADMIRABLES

Miss Roo . . . A Coveted Title

Cyndee Dunavant was crowned this year's Miss Roo during the halftime of the Killeen-Richfield homecoming game. During her sophomore and junior year, Cyndee was a member of the Varsity tennis team. Her junior year she served as Varsity cheerleader, Student Council treasurer, and March of Dimes chairman. As a Senior, she was a Varsity cheerleader, and N.H.S. treasurer.

Lost in private thought, Cyndee Dunavant reflects a Roo loss.

Cyndee's escort at the Miss Roo presentation is David Zimmerman.

Mr. Doughty gives Miss Roo, Cyndee Dunavant, the traditional congratulatory kiss.

During his second year as principal, James Doughty worked for the betterment of Killeen High School. His interest in KHS students was apparent as he conferred with students during the summer in regard to proposed dress code changes. His school spirit was reflected by his attendance at various school functions. Mr. Doughty likes to spend time with his family, while his hobbies include flying and photography.

Joining the administrative staff this year were Mrs. Helen Little and Mr. Robert McMinn as Assistant Principals. Mrs. Little, a former classroom teacher, is the first woman to be appointed an assistant principal at Killeen. Mr. McMinn came to Killen from Durango, Mexico.

Mr. John Driver returned this year as Assistant Principal after having served in this capacity the last six weeks of last year.

Service Ranks First with ROTC

The Killeen Detachment of Junior Reserve Officer's Training Corps was a definite asset to Killeen High. It serves the school by raising the flag each morning, and presenting the colors during assemblies, among other school services. At football games the ROTC provided cadets to direct traffic, and to operate a concession stand. Also the cadets acted as ushers to direct fans to their seats. Under the leadership of skilled instructors the Corps gained many state-wide honors during its colorful history at KHS. The ROTC program provides first hand knowledge toward mature development and successful careers.

Sophomore biology students were the most enrolled of all science students. Their enthusiasm and reluctance were both visible as they dissected that earthworm for the first time. Upperclassmen were too busy finding out new things for themselves in physical science, physics, and chemistry to worry about all those sophomores.

Key Club Builds Character

With "We Build" as the 1971-72 club motto, the KHS Key Club, composed of 33 young men, performed various services for both school and community throughout the year. The fall of the year found members actively campaigning for Johnny Toliver, who was elected District Lt. Governor. Other activities during football season included the sponsorship of a bonfire and downtown pep rally to boost Roo spirit. Sponsoring the annual Killeen Tennis Tourney on January 22 and assisting with the Kiwanis Pancake Supper February 15, also occupied much time during the second semester.

The three primary fund-raising projects for the Key Club were working at the Ka-Roo concession stand, selling student directories, holding the Powder puff football bowl and participating in the Key Club-Faculty Basketball game. Much of the profits from these projects were donated to worthwhile causes such as giving a book to the school library in memory of Norbert Graff and contributing $50 to the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation. At the close of the year, members attended the Spring Rally, the District Convention in Dallas, and held a Parents' Appreciation Banquet.

Choir Notables

All-State choir members for K.H.S. are Tony Garcia, Brenda Perry, Leesa Nite, Jackie Reding, Gary Hawk and Linda McKittrick.

Mr. Nick Boltz, promoted to choir director, was assisted by Mrs. Barbara Thomas in instructing choir students and co-ordinating choir activities during an active 1971-1972 year. Officers for the choir were: President, Steve Alford; Vice-President, Tony Garcia; Secretary, Jackie Reding; and Reporter-Treasurer, Sonja Manning. The musical "The King and I", presented by the combined choirs in November occupied much time during the first semester. The second semester found choir members participating in U.I.L. Solo and Ensemble Contest, Concert-Sightreading Contest and additional programs and concerts. A record of six members were selected for All-State choir in February. Choir members also sold candy to sponsor the end of the year trip, and planned as well as participated in "Club Allegro" a musical program.

Spirited Roo Band—

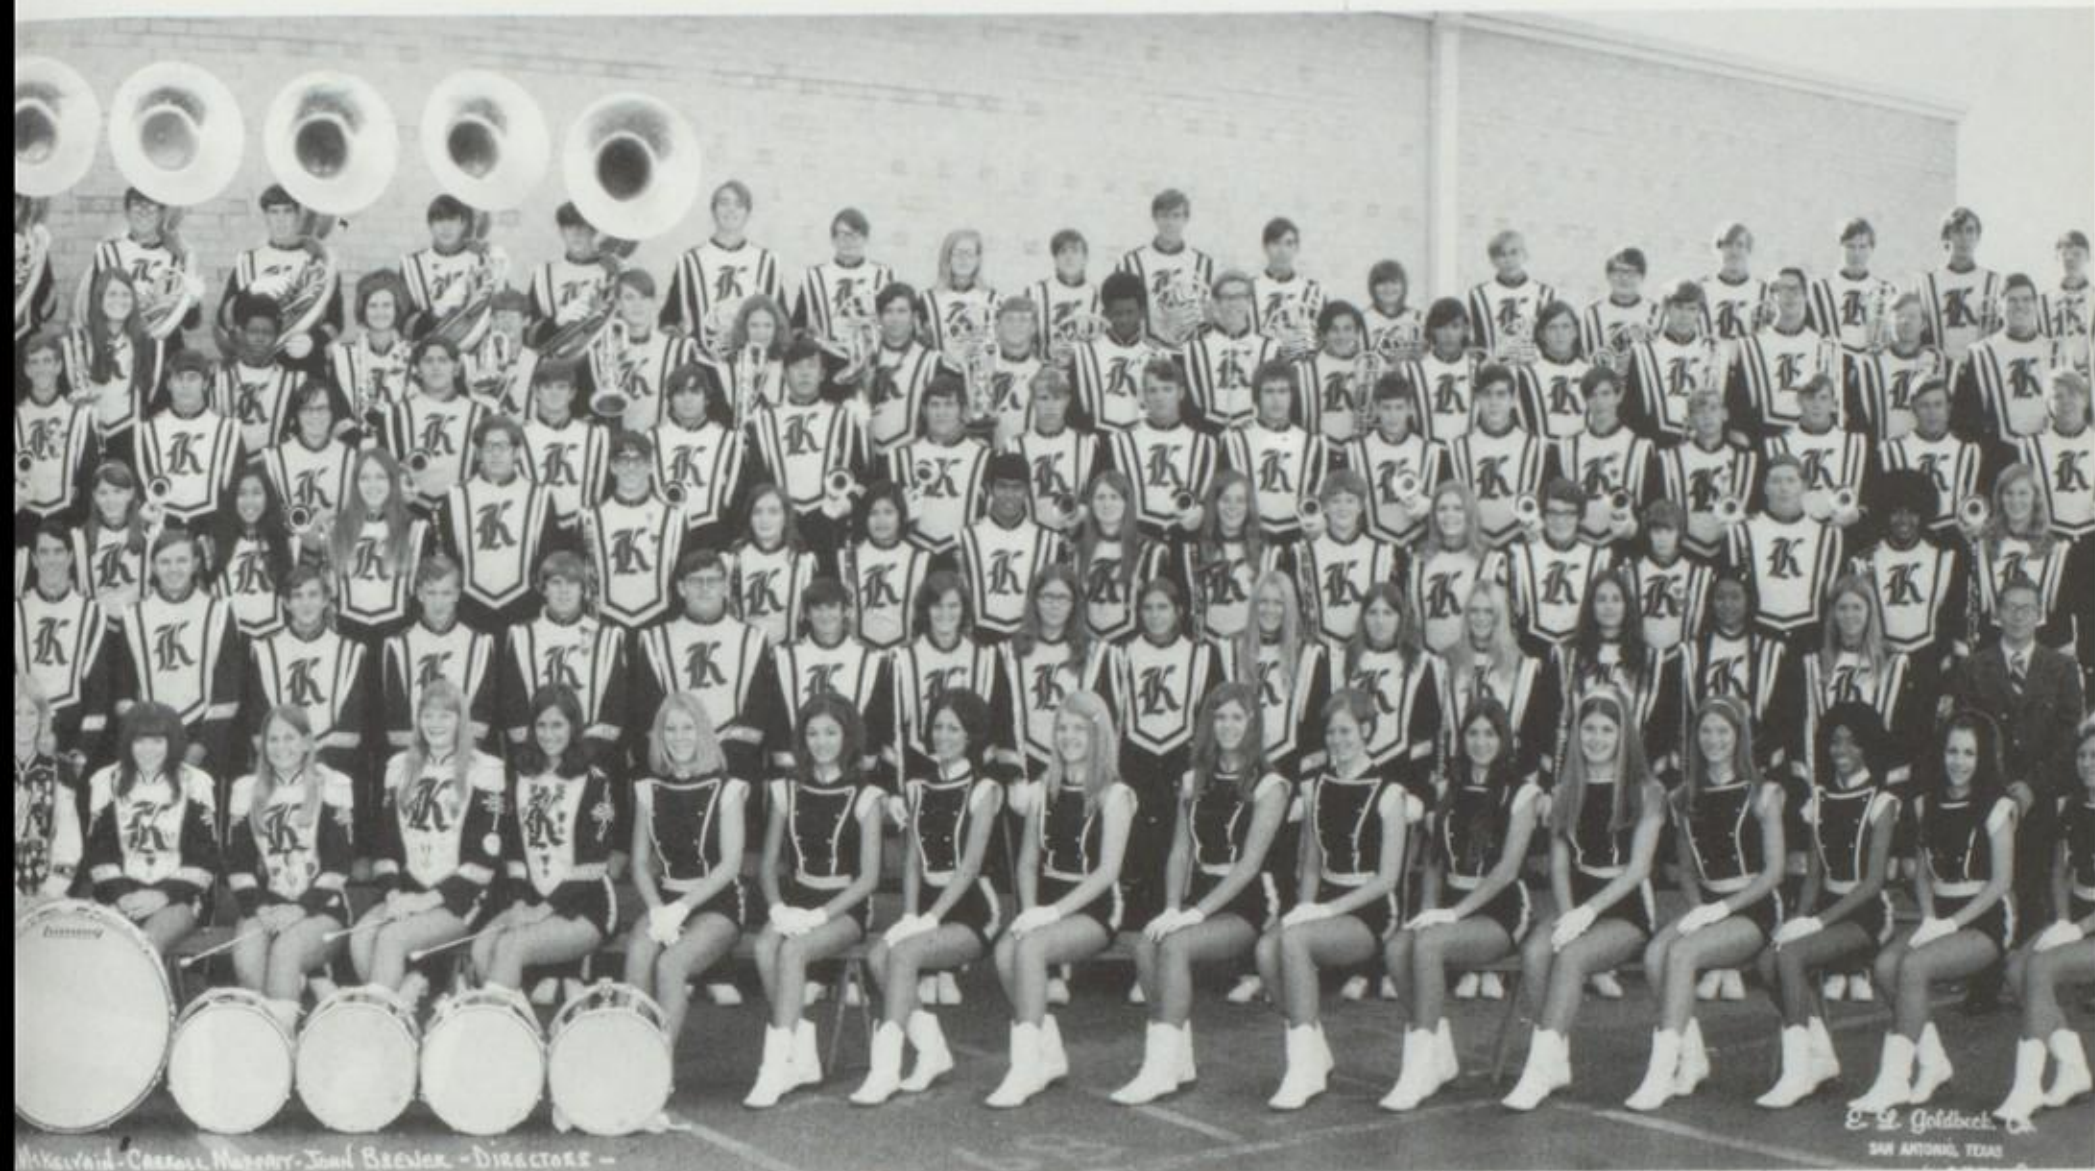

THE 1971-1972 BAND OF KILLEEN HIGH SCHOOL—Doris Pennington

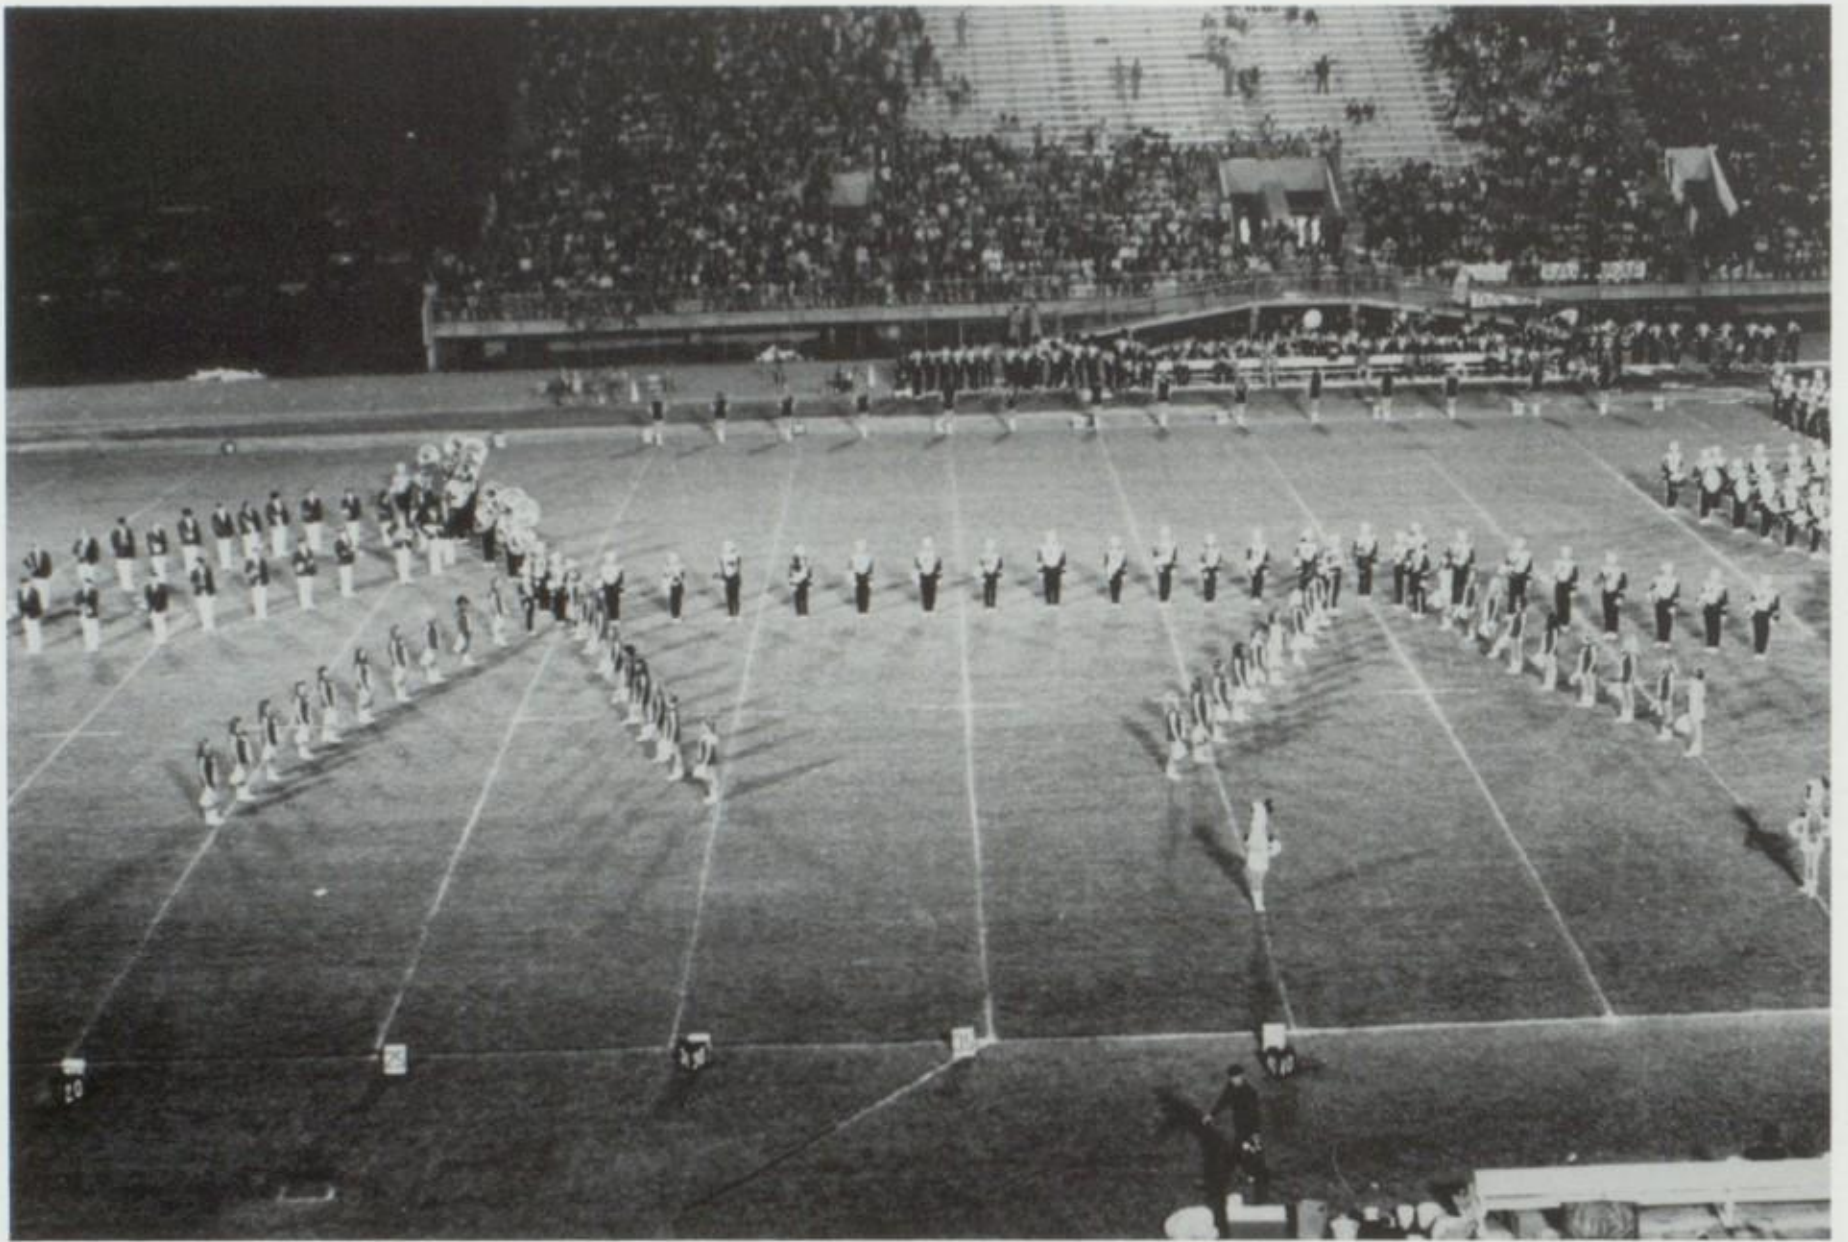

The 1971-1972 K.H.S. had a very active and successful year starting on August 2, 1971 in preparation for football season. The Varsity Band with over 200 members performed at 13 football games and was one of two bands in Region VIII to receive a Division I rating at the U.I.L. Marching Contest in November. In addition to three parades in Killeen, the band marched in the Cotton Bowl Parade on New Year's Day and combined with Temple and Belton to present a pre-game show at the Cotton Bowl. Fifty-four band members earned places in the District Band with thirty-two going on to be selected for the Region Band. Two members were selected for All State honors. Three concert bands were created in the spring. Band members won over 200 Division I medals at the U.I.L. Solo and Ensemble Contest and all three groups participated in the U.I.L. Concert and Sight-reading Contest in April. Other activities and performances included concerts at all four junior high schools by the Symphonic Band, numerous appearances by the stage band at banquets and for service clubs. The bands also performed at a Spring Band Festival, a Spring Concert and at graduation. Drum majors were Marilyn Tucker and Christi Belote.

Twirlers and Kangarettes

Twirlers and Kangarettes contributed much to the band's overall marching performance this year. Practicing daily after school to perfect their varied routines, the twirlers and Kangarettes displayed their talents during halftimes of both Junior Varsity and Varsity football games. Pleasant to look at, these girls proved that their poise and ability while performing equalled their looks.

Student Council Strives

Shannon, Corresponding Secretary; Jane Montgomery, Vice-President.

Work began early in the summer for the 1971-1972 Student Council officers. Along with other students, they met with members of the school administration to discuss and revise the KHS dress code. The month of August found the officers planning an orientation to introduce Killeen High to students. Five hundred prospective sophomores and new students attended the orientation program which lasted one day. With the beginning of school came the election for new Senators. Following the election, the Council began to work earnestly on its designated projects. One of these was the presentation of a friendship plaque to each visiting rival school during football season. The plaque was presented by a Student Council officer preceding each game.

Homecoming brought special duties to the Council. Former graduates of KHS were recognized during the game, and a homecoming dance, sponsored by the Student Council, followed in the cafetorium. As a tribute to the Fighting Roos as Regional Football Champions, the Council sponsored the annual cake auction. A new high total of $769 was raised. One cake sold for $250. This profit was donated to the James Colson Fund. For the remainder of the year, members worked on plans for an Interclub Council and student bookstore. The Inter-club Council was to be made up of representatives from each student organization at KHS and the bookstore providing necessary school items for students. The Student Council also elected Students of the Month.

Outstanding in the four cardinal principles of scholarship, leadership, character and service, N.H.S. members maintained an overall academic average of at least 90. Projects undertaken by the club included the sponsorship of a Thanksgiving needy family and contributions to the Santa Pal program. It was voted by members during the year to donate profits from sales of football spirit ribbons to a worthy charity rather than have a student-faculty banquet. This contribution was approximately $500. New members were initiated in a ceremony at 7:00 P.M., March 28th in the high school auditorium. An open reception was held afterward in the lobby.

French Culture

French Club members discuss the New Orleans trip.

Composed of students who were taking French as well as those students who were interested in learning more about French culture, the French club met under the supervision of Mrs. Connie Schneider every other Wednesday after school. To support the club's main project, attending a French symposium in Seguin on March 18-19, members sold maroon and white pom-poms to Roo fans during football season. Other money-making projects included car washes and bake sales. Besides going to the symposium, the group also went to French restaurants and to New Orleans during the Easter holidays.

Meeting formally on announced days during the year, the Library Club also had duties for every school day. Members were assigned to the library certain periods throughout the day, and during this time shelved books, assisted those who needed information, and checked out books. The annual Christmas party was held December 15th, and the club served refreshments during Open House in the Spring.

Officers are Susan Noble, Vice-President; Lonnie Crowther, President; Joan Echols, Secretary; and Janelle House, Representative.

Sketchmasters Put

Eager to include all students who wished to learn more about art and its various aspects, the Sketchmaster's Art Club opened its membership to all students taking art courses and invited others who were not taking art as an elective to join. The club as a group went to several concerts, museums and galleries to observe the work of master artists. Also a service organization, the club donated funds to various school causes, and their services to organizations who needed posters, and other types of assistance. To raise money the Sketchmasters had bake sales throughout the year. The sponsor was Mr. Russ Seidenburg.

Members of the I. C. T. program are, Kenneth Davidson, David Sutton, Billy Cowart, Richard Dobbin, David Mullins, Mike Jensen, Gary Parker, Sammy Warren, Mike Berry, Mike Foster, Hilda Cano, Ronnie Caldwell, William

Industrial Co-operative Training students, each attending school half a day and working in various positions during the remaining half day, helped to promote Killeen High's vocational program. Taking their place in the newly constructed Vocational Arts Complex during the 2nd semester, ICT worked together as a group, as well as working individually at a job. Selling popcorn and soft drinks during varsity and junior varsity basketball games served as the club's money-making project. ICT, along with DE and VOE students, also planned the annual spring Employer-Employee banquet held in the KHS cafetorium.

Promoting their program through representation in several places of work, members of the Office Education Association, 26 young ladies and 3 young men, also were employed by the school. Some served as secretaries in the main office and in the band hall office. As a money-making project, members sold Val-o-Grams, poems presented in telegram form for Valentines Day, February 14th and candied apples throughout the year. The group also attended a contest in Temple on March 4 and planned the Employer-Employee Banquet along with KHS's two other vocational organizations.

A major highlight for the KHS DECA Chapter this year was the moving into new quarters on Tuesday, February 29th. Trucks, station wagons and cars started rolling in at 8 p.m. and members carried load after load of books and supplies to the new vocational building. Earlier during the school year, members hosted the LaVega chapter for a morning in the D.E. room and a luncheon at the Cowhouse. LaVega students and their sponsor were interested in organizing their chapter and getting involved in many DECA activities.

Local members served refreshments in the D.E. classroom during first period. During the second period the guests were taken on tour of the school. Part of third period was spent in talking about contests and then the group had lunch at the Cowhouse where KHS alumni members gave further information on chapter activities. The National DECA President, Harold Williams from Houston visited KHS in April for a talk to the student body and for a joint meeting with other D.E. chapters in the Central Texas area. This year's chapter of 37 members was the largest group since the first year in the present high school building. Using the theme "Welcome to Vacationland" with decorations in the Disneyland theme, DECA members joined ICT and VOE in the spring to put on a gala banquet for employers.

The Environmental Awareness Group, newly formed under the supervision of Mrs. Charlotte Taggart, tried to work realistically toward the solution of community environmental problems. Meeting on Tuesday mornings and twice monthly on Saturdays to pick up trash around the school, the group also supervised campaigns for area clean-up. Various committees appealed to school and community clubs for assistance. An "Ecology Christmas Tree" erected downtown by the club served as a reminder to everyone to remember to clean-up over the holidays. Goals of the club were to lobby by writing letters to Texas legislators asking for the promotion of ecology legislation. A trip to Austin was planned to learn about ecology laws. The club donated trash barrels for the use of students on school grounds, and repainted those already in use.

Ushering in the new year, the John E. Little Chapter of Future Teachers of America hosted an ice-cream social for all new members. Work began earnestly in September and October as the club prepared for two main events, the faculty tricycle race and the District XII Convention held at K.H.S., both occurring in November. A new program was also begun when Dr. C. E. Ellison, Superintendent of Schools, gave his permission to start a teacher's aide program involving F.T.A. members. Six members participated at three elementary schools in Killeen. During the second half of the year, a money making project was held to finance two scholarships given to one senior boy and girl in F.T.A. Members also attended the State Convention held in Dallas, and presented apples to teachers during Texas Education Week. The climax of a successful year was the spring banquet for members and guests.

Ready to begin the tricycle race are faculty members, Mrs. Charlotte Taggart and Mrs. Jo Ann Northern. Mrs. Elaine Sparks, not pictured, captures the women's crown.

Formerly chartered to teach young men techniques and aspects of farming, FFA today concentrates on livestock as well as agriculture. During the 72 year, members entered livestock in several shows throughout the state including the Heart of Texas Fair in Waco, the State Fair in Dallas, the Ft. Worth Fat Stock Show, the San Antonio Livestock Exposition, the Austin Breeding Show, and the Bell County and Killeen Livestock shows. To raise money, the group sold popcorn and peanuts at all Varsity and Junior Varsity home games. Members also sold insulated vests and stadium bags. At the district FFA meeting, Melverne Kelder was elected District Vice-President, and Bill Hall was voted District Sentinel. FFA boasted 5 girls in membership. One, Debbie Yowell, was elected sweetheart of the organization.

The Art of Karate . . .

The Karate Club, newly formed under the sponsorship of Mr. Tunnell, saw the learning of various Karate techniques by interested young men. Two qualified Karate experts, both attending KHS, assumed the roles of instructors. Although several bruises were present during the first few months, members thoroughly enjoyed the experiences of learning this art of self defense.

Killeen High School Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps was organized during the 1967-68 school year. Since that time, it has grown in size and activities. This year the Corps contained almost two hundred members of three different classifications—MT I's, MT II's, and MT III's.

The extracurricular activities included the drill team, the rifle team, a Ranger detachment, and the fencing team. Also, there was a detachment called the Wallaby Debs. This was composed of five girls who acted as secretaries to the instructors besides performing many important tasks for the Corps.

The major goals of ROTC are the development of good citizenship and leadership qualities. The lessons learned through participation in the program will serve the participant throughout his life.

Future Homemakers of America, an organization designed to provide opportunities in home economics which are not offered in class studies, involves both junior high and high school girls who have taken homemaking previously or are now enrolled in the course. During the 1971-1972 year KHS members contributed many services to the organization including the sponsorship of a crochet workshop for interested girls and contributions consisting of dressed dolls to the Santa Pal Program during the Christmas season. Knowledge was gained through make-up demonstrations and attendance by the girls at the San Antonio area meeting and state convention. Also interested in companionship and fun as a group, members toured Six Flags Over Texas, an amusement park in Dallas, during April.

Insight Through Journalism

The Roo Review, the Killeen High School newspaper, is published by journalism students of KHS. This 12-to-16 page paper, published every two to three weeks, is entirely self-supporting through sales and advertising and is one of the largest high-school papers in the state.

Killeen High School offers three years of journalism, with courses of instruction ranging from elementary techniques in news-story writing to the more advanced techniques of writing, newspaper topography, layout, photography, and advertising.

The Roo Review, consistently a prize-winning paper, is affiliated with University Interscholastic League, Texas High School Press Association, Quill and Scroll Society, and the Columbia Scholastic Press Association.

An innovation of the paper has been the institution of picture pages featuring activities or focal points of interest around Killeen High School. Both journalism students and students of the KHS photography department have collaborated in producing the pictures for these pages.

Beginning journalism students, utilizing the paper as a teaching instrument, have learned interview techniques and story writing and have gained, in the process, a wide knowledge of the activities and operations of the big and active school.

Advanced students have moved into the areas of layout and topography and have gained valuable experience in maintaining the business end of the paper.

Besides writing articles, Roo Review members Jeri Gray, Ray Anne Emerich, Greg Gaines, Venessa Montgomery, Terry Hanger, Barbara Witcomb, and Dianne Wolfrum also find time to promote paper sales.

Photographers Focus

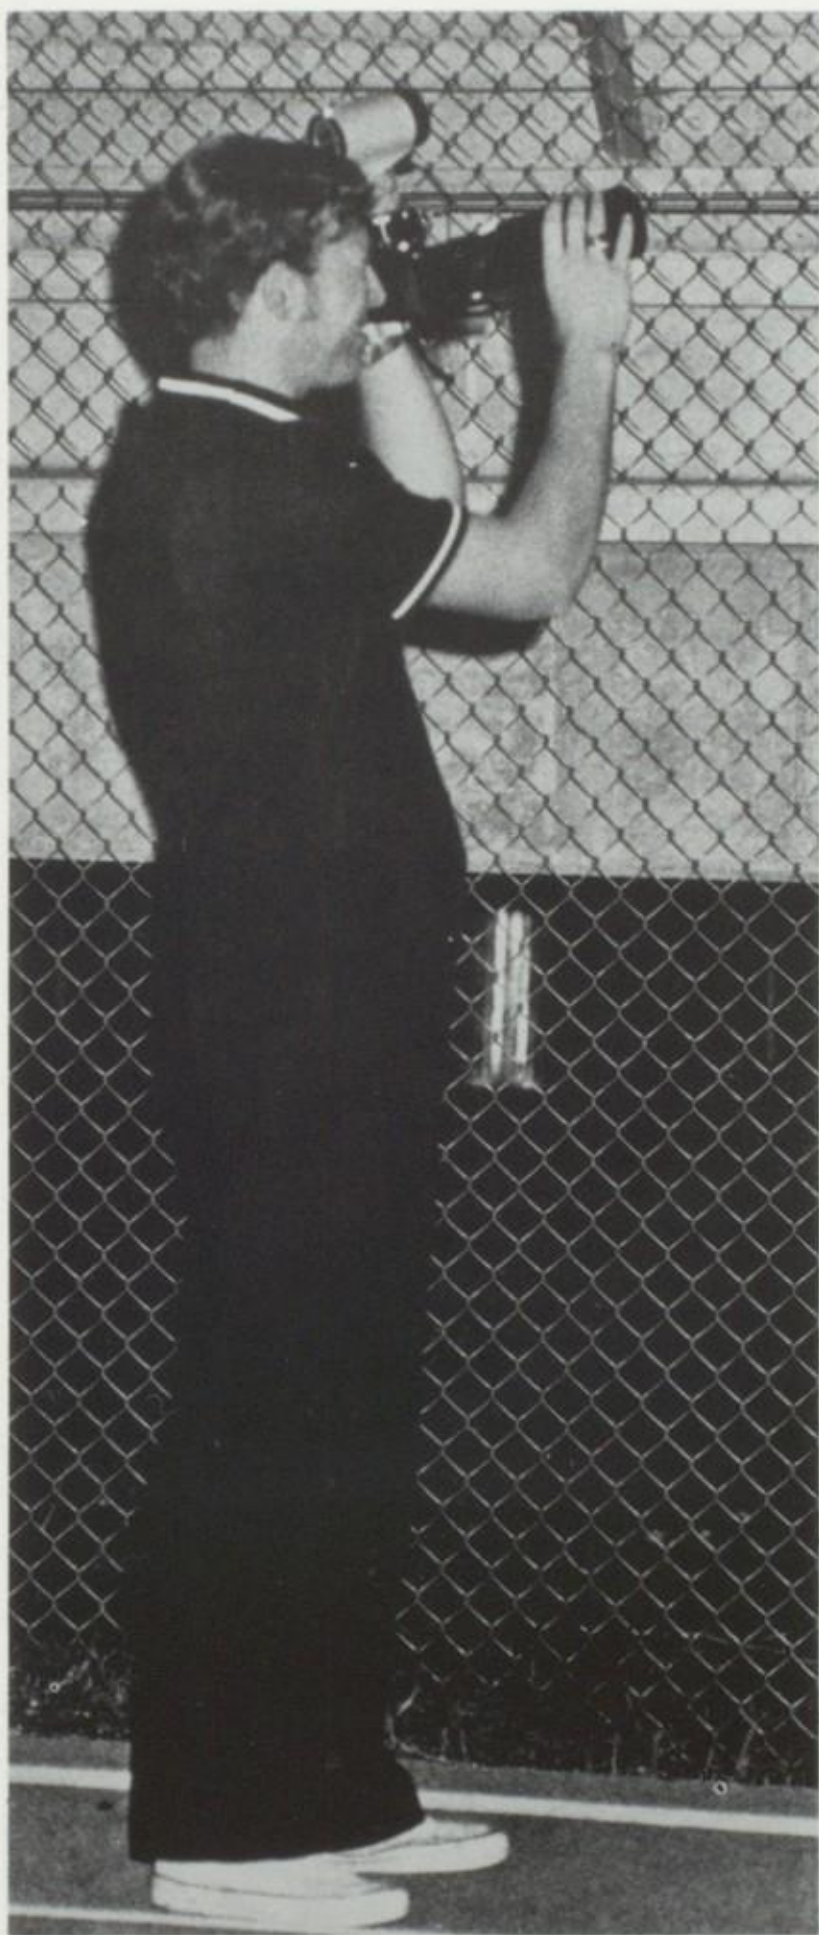

Tom Manes, Ricky Boales, and Richard Powers served as publication photographers for the 1971-1972 year.

Facing deadline after deadline photographers still managed to perfect form as well as clarity when printing and contacting the thousands of pictures taken throughout the year. Members contributed pictures to the two KHS publications the Roo Review newspaper, and the Kangaroo yearbook. The staff also attended a workshop at Temple Junior College during the year to learn more about new photography techniques. The sponsor was Mr. Woodrow Hall.

Pat Morrill and Mike Hancock handled printing and contacting of the photographs.

Kangaroo: Memory of

Beginning work during the summer, the 1972 KANGAROO yearbook staff, composed of four senior veterans and nine eager-to-learn new members, held informal meetings at the home of editor Marilyn K. Moore. Developing a theme and cover design at these meetings proved to be difficult, but once done, actual layouts could be drawn and copy written. During school registration, the staff assisted photographer Mr. Harold Horton by registering sophomores and juniors who had pictures taken. The staff attended a workshop at Temple Junior College on November 9. The 1971 KANGAROO received an over-all 3rd place rating at this workshop. Members worked busily on sections throughout the year, meeting set deadlines, until February 28 when the last pages were turned in to Newsfoto Yearbooks, and the staff could, at last, relax.

Marilyn K. Moore, editor, supervised all sections as well as put in hours of typing.

Sophomore Cindy Kramer, and juniors Sherry Price, Debbie Fox and artist Kathy Cowen alphabetized students' pictures and also worked on assigned sections.

an Unforgettable Year

Juniors Eric Lavadia, Cathy Cunningham and Nancy Wade organized the junior section before drawing the many necessary layouts.

While attending a workshop at Temple Junior College, yearbook staff members Mark Ervi, Debbie Yowell, Nancy Wade and photographer Mike Hancock, took time out for lunch.

Staff Tackles Job

Velesa Lewis and Jerry Stringer seek to prove that their combined effort can produce a good organizations layout.

Regional Champs

Entering the season with 10 returnees from last year's varsity, the Roos were prepared for the competition in District 15-AAAA. Spirit was low at the beginning of the season. As the season went on spirit grew right along with the Roo win streak, and climaxed at the beginning of the play-off games. With a crushing defense and over powering offense, the Roos battled all opponents to gain their first district title since 1955. The Roo offense averaged 26 points per game, while the Roo defense shut-out six opponents, giving their opponents an average of 7 points per game. Nine Roos, Pat McNeil, Roddy Hamilton, J. G. Crouch, Dennis Gerik, John Klein, Kenny Kimbrough, Thad Rogers, Louis Ashworth, and Robert Fisher, were named to the first team all-district line-up. Pat McNeil broke the 1,000 yard mark in rushing with 1,017 yards in 13 games. The Roos were beaten in the State Quarter-finals by Dallas Carter. Finishing district play with a 7-0 record, and a 13-1 record for the season, the Roos were well satisfied.

The Roo Varsity Coaches are: Ralph Widacki, John Beseda, Ed Cauley, head coach Gene Rogers, and Ace Parker.

Defense Key to Early

Seguin: On rain-drenched turf in Matador Stadium, Killeen edged Seguin 7-0 in a non-district season opener. Killeen's powerful rushing attack, led by Louis Ashworth and a Seguin fumble were the keys to victory for the Roos. Against the aggressive Roo defense the Matadors were able to muster only 98 yards, while the Roos rolled-up 170 yards total offense.

Temple: The Roos battered the Wildcats 27-0 to bring home their first district win. With 167 yards rushing and 94 yards passing, the Roo offensive attack was well-balanced and effective. Two of the four Roo touchdowns came on pass plays from senior, Thad Rogers, to juniors, Jim Gresham and Ronnie Patterson. Three interceptions highlighted the Roo defense as they held their opponents scoreless for the second straight game.

Cleburne: In another wet and muddy game the Roos upset 8th ranked Cleburne 9-6, to post their third victory of the season. The dominant Jacket defense held the Roos to a small 132 yards total offense, while Cleburne tallied 227 yards. On defense, Terry Morris made two game saving plays as he intercepted a Cleburne pass and made a last effort tackle on a Cleburne running back who would have taken it in for the score. Then with 4:57 left in the game Dennis Gerik kicked a 27-yard field goal to put the Roos ahead for good.

Running and Passing, Roos Win

Bishop Dunne: Running and passing the Roos stomped the Dallas Bishop Dunne Falcons 28-0. Louis Ashworth ran for 105 of Killeen's 201 yards on the ground. Thad Rogers was 5 for 12 in the air, gaining 86 yards passing. The stout Roo defense held the Falcons twice inside the Killeen ten-yard line.

With a Bishop Dunne lineman hanging on, Thad Rogers coolly prepares to pass.

Bryan: The Roos made it five in a row against the new Bryan Vikings. The Roos had an almost perfect running attack, gaining 222 yards on the ground. Over half of this yardage belonged to Senior running-back Pat McNeil, who gained 121 yards. With 1:53 left in the second quarter, Killeen collected 17 of their 34 points. Mike Hasty took on the role of passer as he threw a 24 yard touchdown pass to Louis Ashworth. Dennis Gerik put 6 points on the board with 26 and 28 yard field goals. The Killeen defense again looked strong as they allowed only 32 yards total offense in the first half.

University: Pulverizing the University Trojans, Killeen gained a 40-0 victory. Running was the name of the game as the Roos picked up 232 yards on the ground. Mike Hasty led with over 85 yards in six carries. In the passing department Killeen had 5 completions and 4 interceptions out of 26 attempts. The Trojans went nowhere against the stingy Roo defense, as they gained only 19 yards rushing.

Roos Capture

Stanley Isdale and John Bridenstine pressure Corsicana's quarterback.

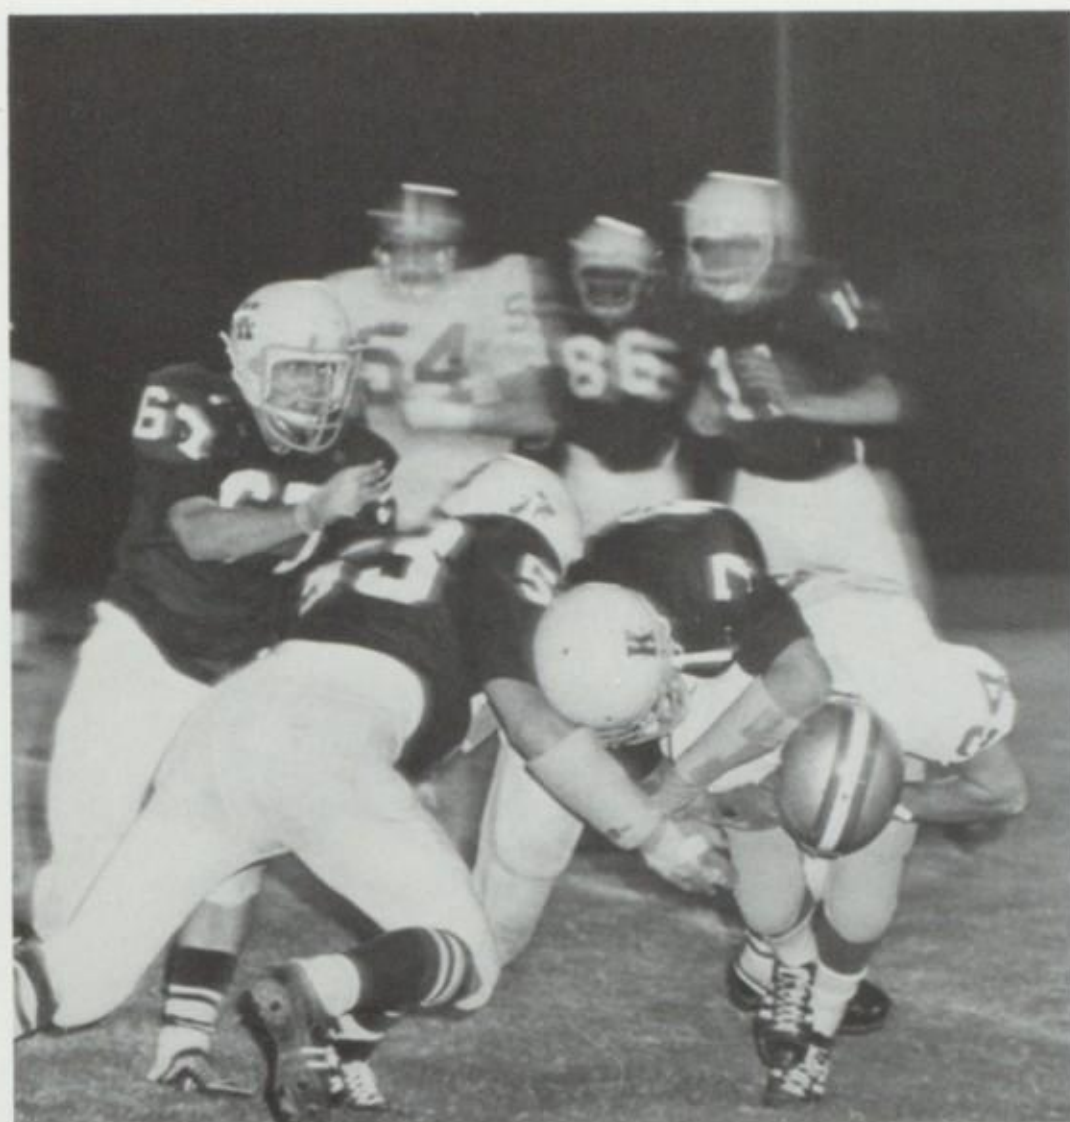

Corsicana: Revenge was taken by the Roos as they defeated the Corsicana Tigers 37-0 in Tiger Stadium. The game was costly for the Roos since Louis Ashworth received an ankle injury which put him out for the season. He was top man with 162 yards on 14 carries in just the first half. Then Mike Hasty took over and added 106 yards in 17 carries. When Killeen wasn't running the ball, the Roo defense man-handled the Tiger offense and held them scoreless.

Richfield: Once again the defensive eleven put the Roos closer than ever to the District Championship, as they shut out the Richfield Rams 13-0. This made 3 straight shutouts for the defense and 8 straight wins for the team. Penalties halted the Roo attack continuously as illegal procedure was called 9 times.

Terry Morris brings down Corsicana receiver.

District Title

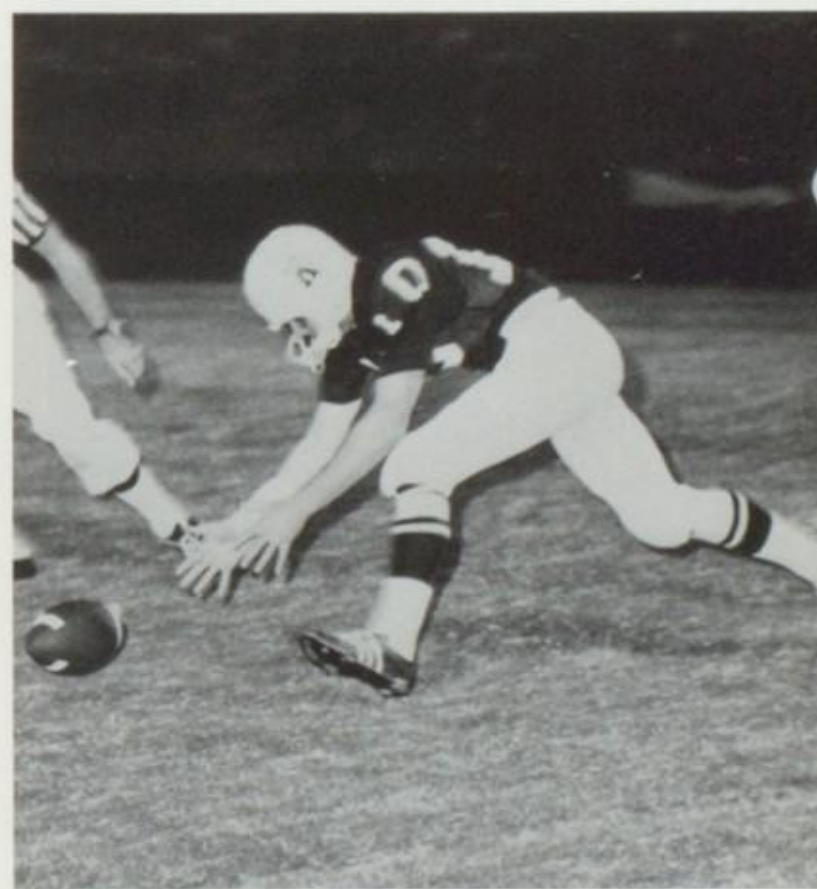

John Klein, Kenny Kimbrough, and Jim Gresham combine to crumple Richfield runner.

John Housman and Mike Reinhardt attempt to block a Corsicana pass.

Waco High: Romping over Waco High Tigers 55-22, Killeen wrapped-up the District Championship. On the first play from scrimmage Thad Rogers passed to Bill Bishop for an 83-yard touchdown. A blocked punt by John Cruddas allowed John Housman to pick up the ball and run 18 yards for a score. Stanley Isdale ran over people to go 27 yards and get his first score of the season. On the ground the Roos gathered the highest total offense this year, 481 yards

First Undefeated

Dallas Skyline: The Roos dumped the Dallas Skyline Raiders 21-7 to give them their first undefeated regular season in 16 years. Giving up only 40 yards rushing the Roo defense was outstanding. McNeil led the Roo offense with 137 yards of 249 yards on the ground. The Raiders prepared Killeen well for the play-off games.

Season Since 1955

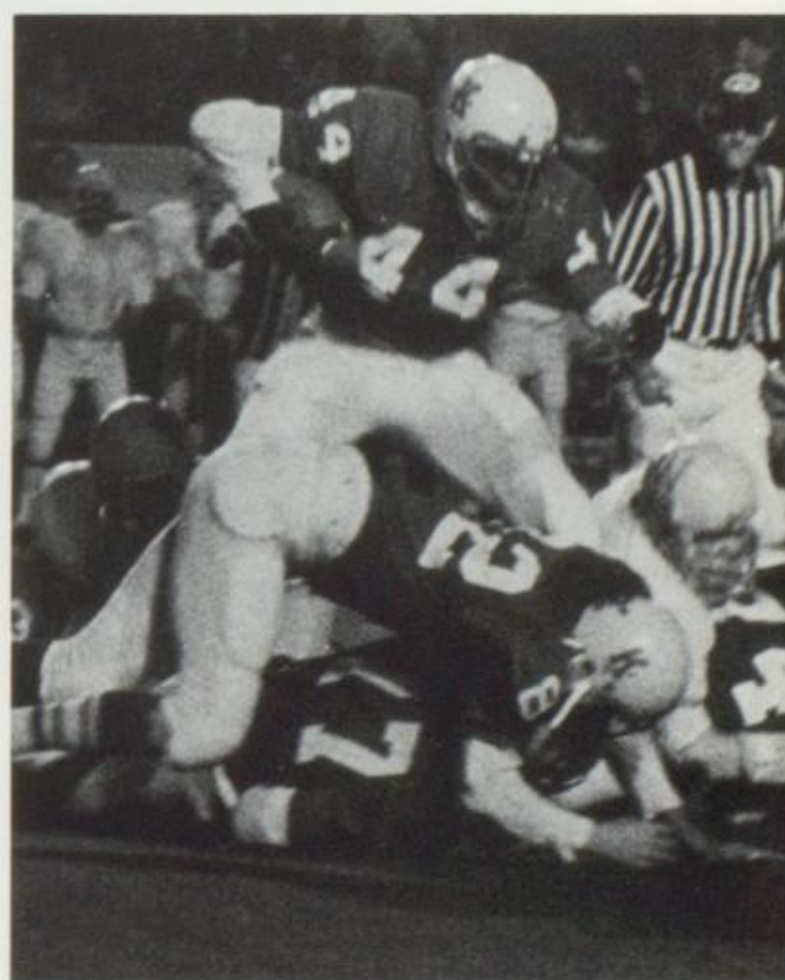

Roddy Hamilton turns the corner after a powerful block by John Cruddas.

Westchester: With a 28-18 decision, the Roos won the bi-district championship over Spring Branch Westchester of Houston. Thad Rogers was a surprise throwing 8 of 11 passes for completions. Bill Bishop took one reception into the end zone, and Ronnie Patterson followed with two more touchdown catches. Pat McNeil was once again leading ground gainer with 128 of Killeen's 214 yards on the ground. Killeen collected 341 yards total offense.

Mike Hasty slips on the turf in the Cotton Bowl.

Lake Highlands: Beating Richardson Lake Highlands in Baylor Stadium, the Roos took the Regional Championship. Roddy Hamilton led the Roos in rushing with 143 yards in 10 carries, while Pat McNeil also garnered 132 yards. The defense was led by J. G. Crouch, John Klein, and Walter Carroll, as the Roos held the Wildcats to only 75 yards on the ground. The Roos had the momentum going for them as they went into the Cotton Bowl battle.

Dallas Carter: Disappointment came to the Roos as they were beaten 9-0 by the Dallas Cowboys in the Cotton Bowl. The Roos led in everything but the score when the game was over. They ran-up 191 yards on the ground to the 90 yards of Dallas. Holding the Carter offense was the key to the game, until they kicked a 48-yard field-goal with 10:41 left in the game. The Roo offense had the opportunities but just couldn't put the points on the board.

Valuable Experience

In 1971 the B-Roos had a fair year. Led by coaches Bo Jackson and Ray Hooten, the B-Roos were spirited and hustling throughout the season. This year's B-team will supply next year's JV and varsity with some good athletes.

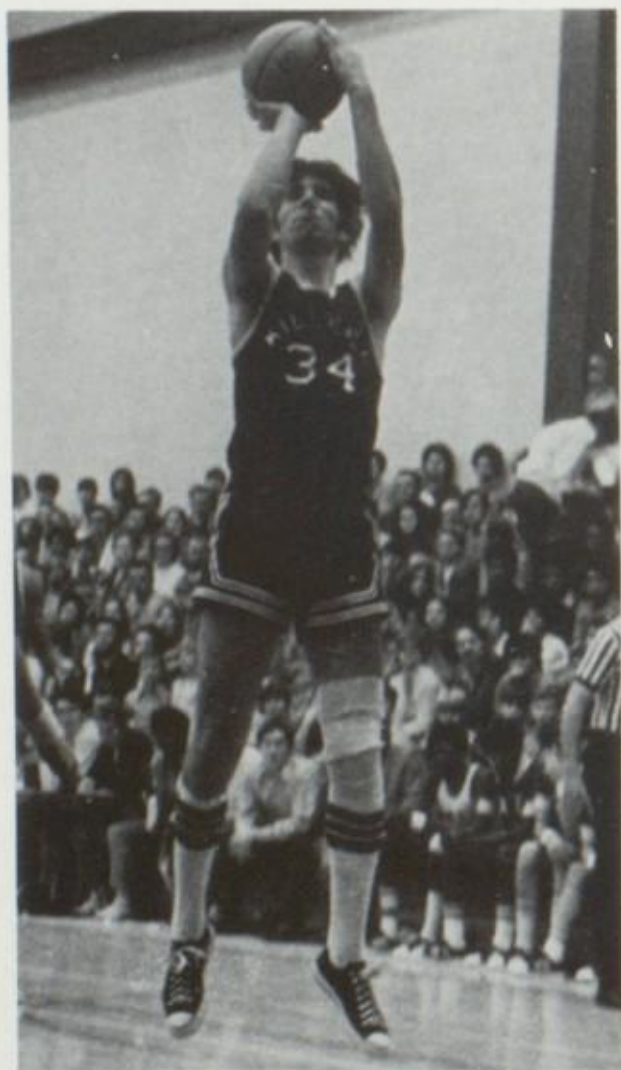

Benny Martin latches on to a Bryan running back.

Roos Lose

In his first year as varsity basketball coach, Ed Cauley brought a winner to Killeen. A squad of eleven, eight of whom were seniors, gave Killeen a District and Bi-district championship. With workouts beginning at the start of the school year, the team was well prepared for the start of the season. Going against San Angelo in their opening game, the Roos showed that they could play in the clutch, winning by one point. From there they went on to win three games by beating McCallum twice and Austin High once. This prepared them for the coming Clear Creek tournament. The Roos won two games and lost two, bringing home no trophies, losing the consolation award in overtime.

Win Two Tournaments

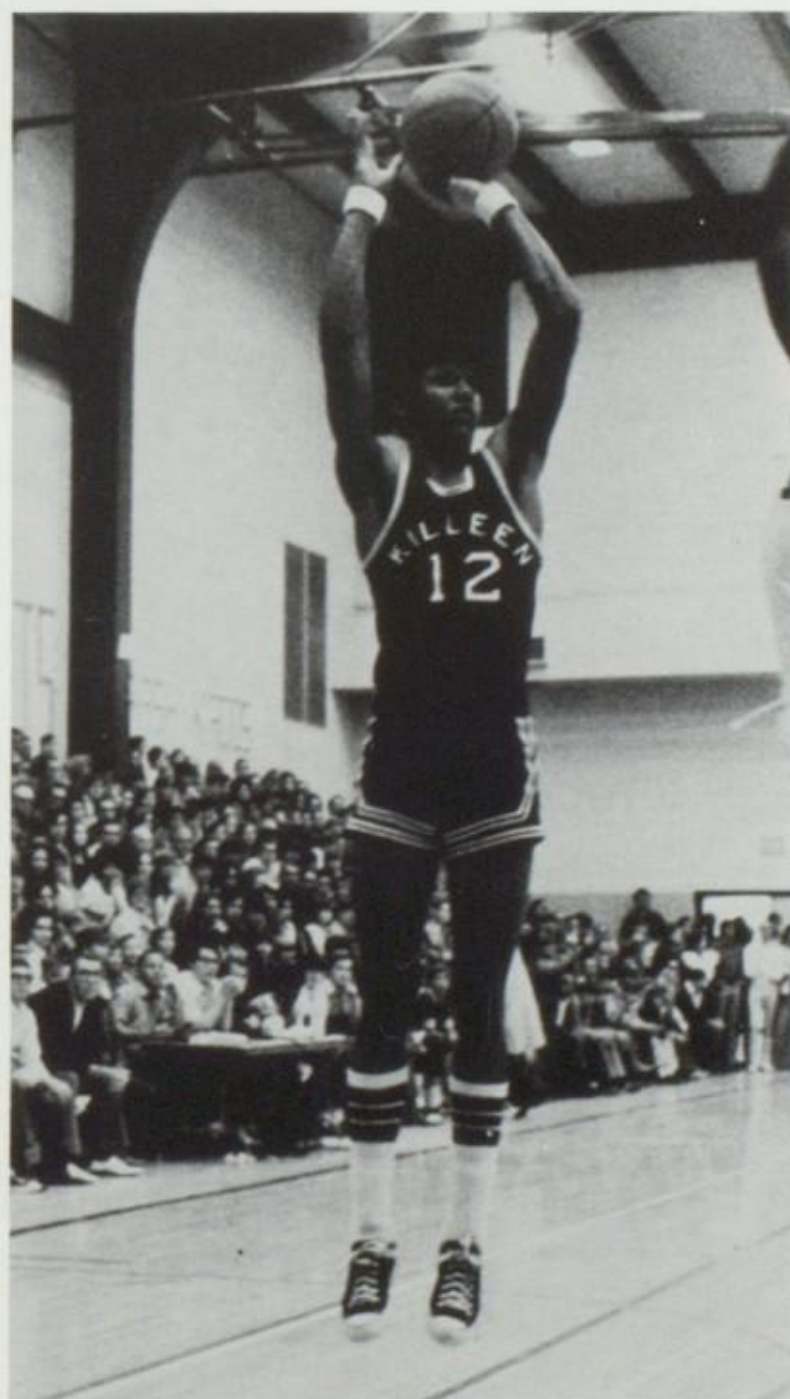

Pat Valastek attempts a two-point play against Cleburne.

District play started December 14, as the Temple Wildcats came to Killeen; the Roos were defeated by a margin of six points. Bouncing back after this loss the Roos won the Killeen Tournament by beating Spring Branch Westchester in the finals. Killeen was again beaten in district play by Cleburne in a poorly officiated match at Cleburne. Killeen then won their second tournament of the year by beating Temple in the finals of the Copperas Cove Tournament.

Donald Tyson attempts a jump-shot against Richfield.

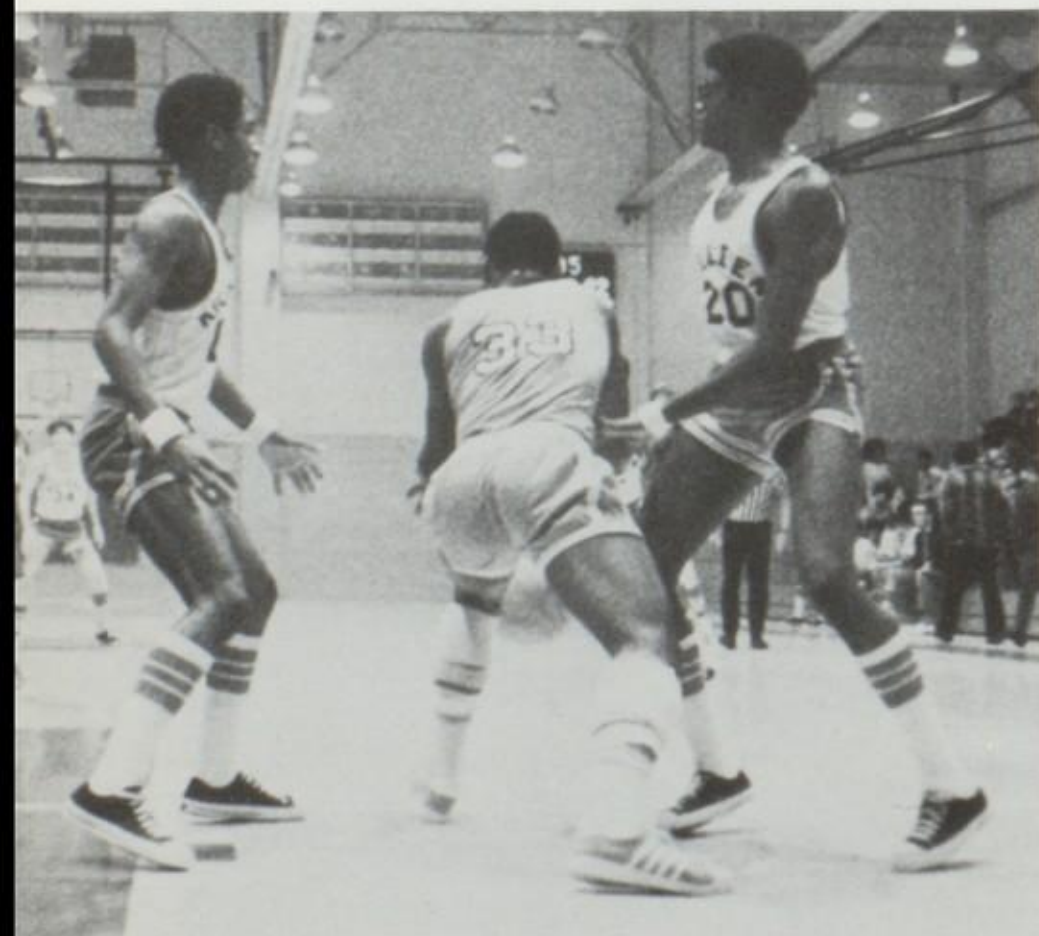

Exhibiting his jumping ability, Ron Patterson towers over a Temple defender.

Roos Find Themselves

Finding themselves in trouble as they looked ahead to 14 more district games, the Roos were down two games with no victories. They had to win the rest of their games to have a chance for the District Championship. Pulling together as a team, they came on to win ten district games in a row. The big game came when the Roos traveled to Temple and defeated the Wildcats by two points in a real thriller.

Roos Tie for Killeen's win streak was broken when Corsicana defeated them in the final seconds of an important clash. This left three teams tied for first place in the district, Killeen, Corsicana, and Temple, with only three games left to play. Killeen then defeated Richfield, Waco High, and LaVega to end up tied for the district championship with Temple.

Glen Cunningham and Kenneth Reavis block an attempted shot by a Cleburne player.

Ken Morrison goes in for a lay-up against University.

Roy Dale Adams attempts a shot over the outstretched hand of a University player.

Members of the B-team squad are: left to right, top row; Gifford Small, Jim Donahue, Tim Sharp, Steve Powell, Terry DeBolt, George Kale, John Bressler; bottom row, Jerome

Johnson, Hector Herrera, Bill Farley, Don Duncan, Byron Temple.

Prospects High for Baseball Team

Crum, Jimmy Schwertner; bottom row, Terry Morris, Brent Bynum, Ray Upp, Dan Taylor, Glen Cunningham, Chuck Mooney, Roy Dale Adams.

Starting workouts earlier than ever before, Coach Ray Hooten began to get his baseballers ready for their first game in early March. The squad was young having only five seniors out of a squad of 18. To help improve hitting performance Coach Hooten set up an electric pitching machine.

Varsity Baseball coaches Ray Hooten and Ed Blomquist have a chuckle at practice.

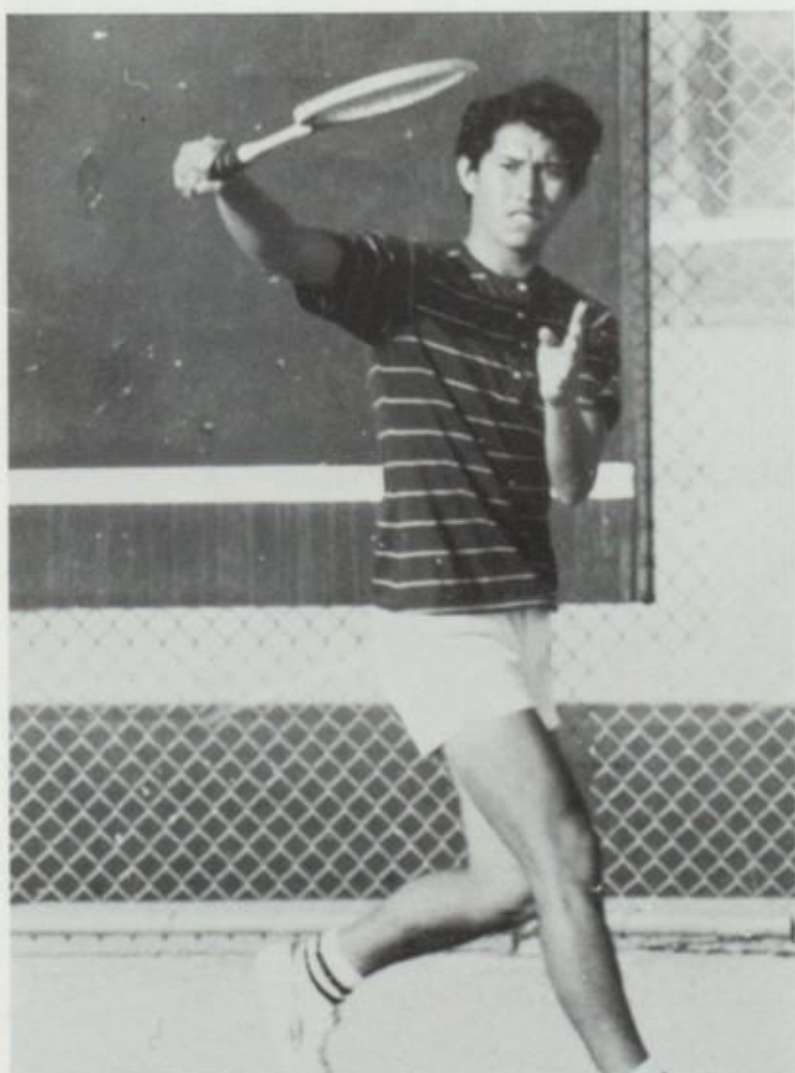

Terry Morris and Dan Taylor loosen-up by playing catch before work-outs start.

Tennis Team Takes Trophies

Starting off early the Roo netters come on strong. They placed highly in their own Killeen Invitational Tournament. From there they went on to place second in the Bryan tourney. Melvin Collazzo placed first in the boy's singles, and Dean Searle along with Tee Bates won second in boy's doubles.

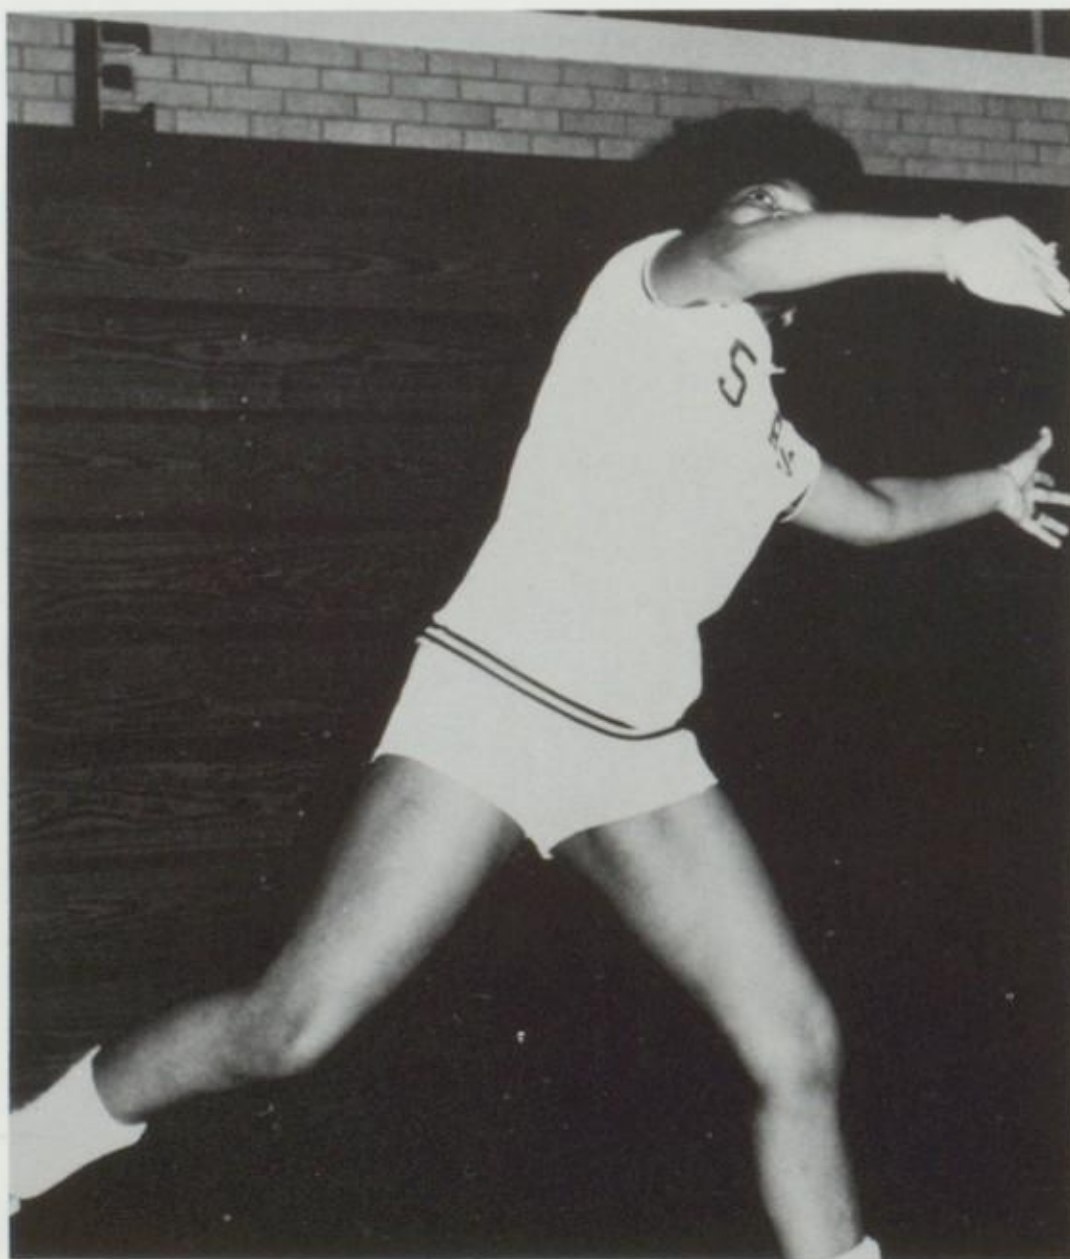

Volleyball Squad

Cockrell, Debra Adams, Coach Janice Ward, Elaine Lexion, Betty Small, Joannie Kendricks, and Denise Garica.

Entering the 1972 season, Coach Janice Ward had a well experienced team. The team had a busy schedule ahead as they planned to play Temple, Lampasas, Belton, and Copperas Cove. The squad sponsored their first tournament February 4 & 5. They also entered the San Marcos tournament in February.

Sandra Glover smashes one for another Roo score.

Is Experienced Winners

Back row: Ruth Davis, Marcella Garcia, Kathy Owens, Penny Smith, Sandra Grover, Pat Alexander, Sue Cunningham.

Pamela Moore spikes one into the net.

Tracksters Keep Pace

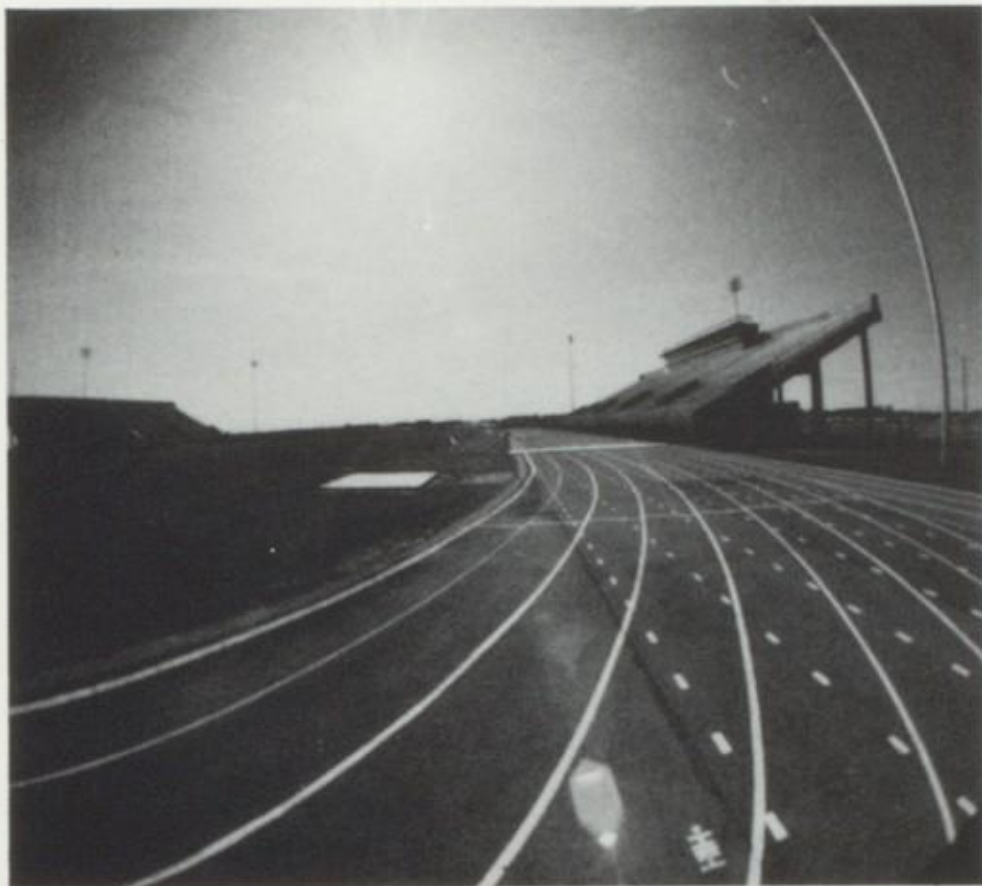

The KHS track team poses for a group picture.

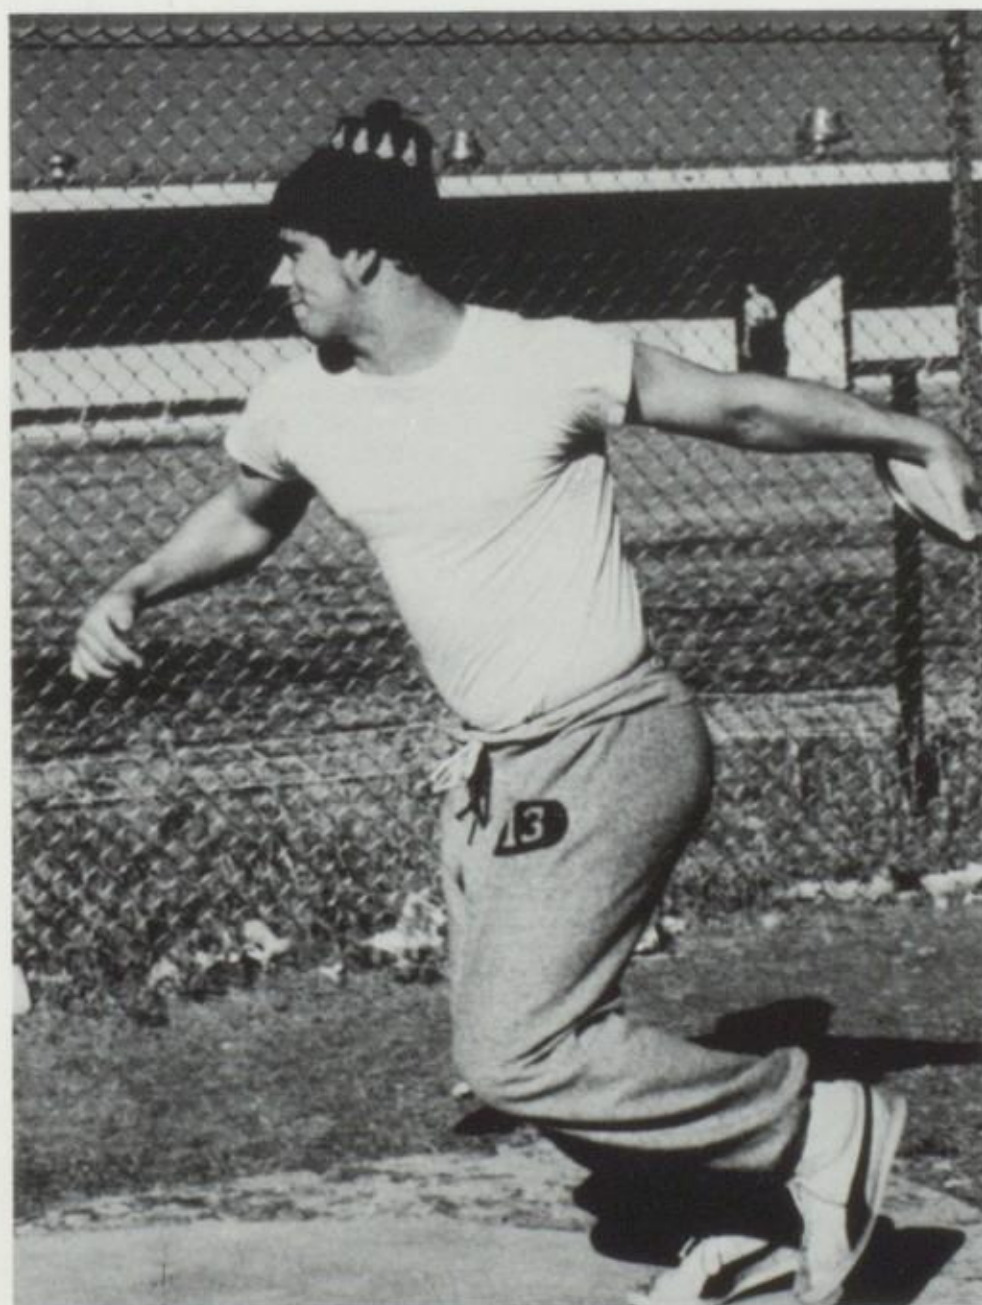

In their opening meet of the season the Roos traveled to San Marcos for the Rattler Relays and finished fourth overall. Getting off to a late start in their workouts caused the Kangaroo track team to finish poorly in the early part of the season. Killeen once again hosted the Killeen Relays at Kangaroo Stadium.

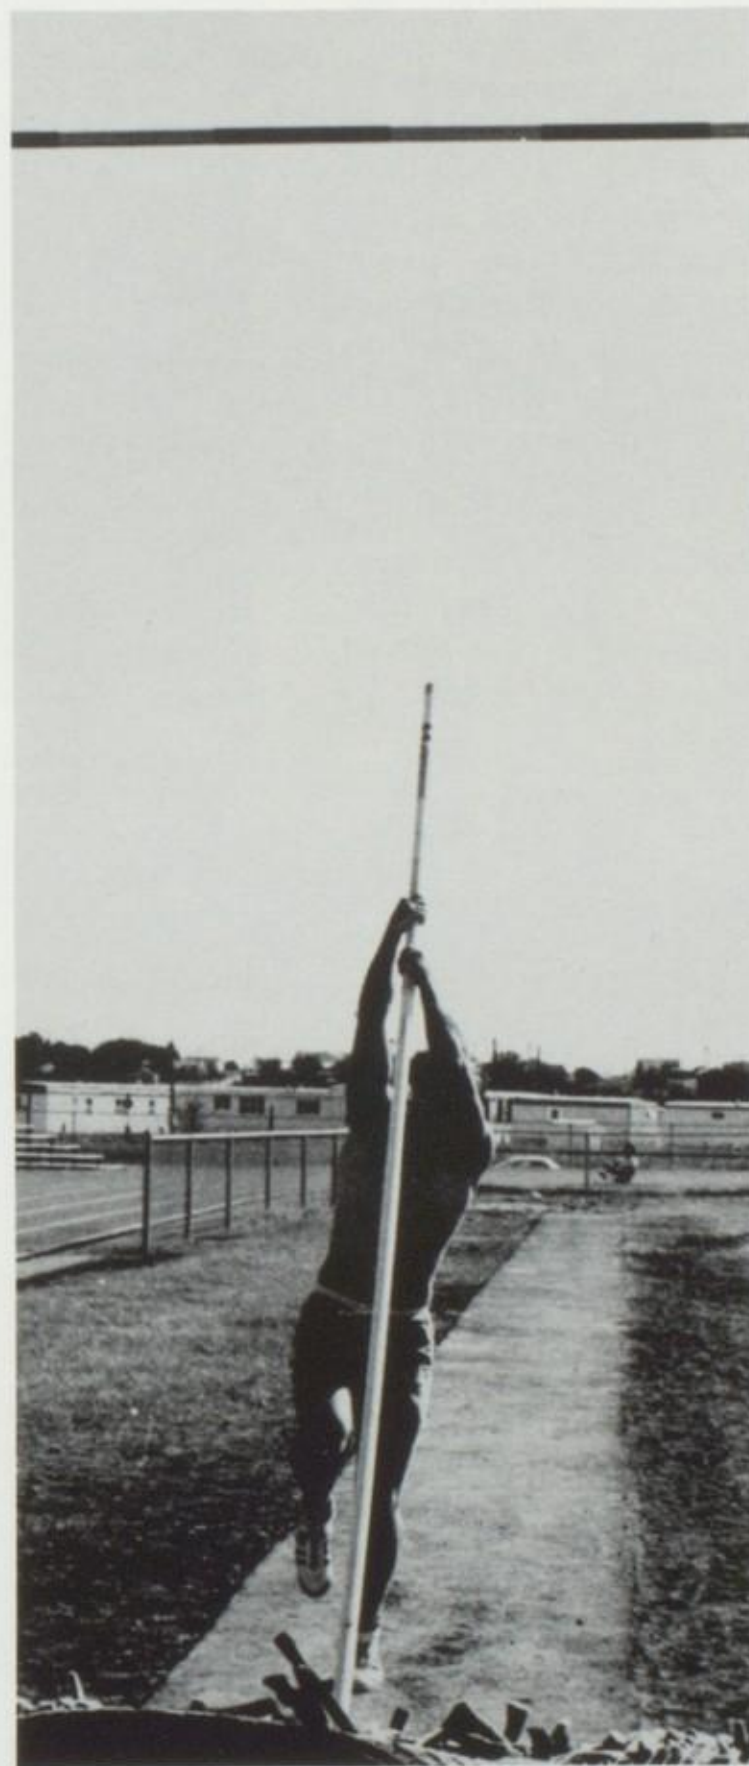

Robert Fisher accelerates at the start of the hundred yard dash.

The Killeen Relays were held at Kangaroo Stadium.

Dennis Gerik prepares to throw the discus during a daily practice.

Randy Chilton springs off the track in an attempt at vaulting over the set height.

Right on! With Girls' Track

Practicing daily, the Girl's track team prepared for competition in the Class A Division, District 8. Entering sprints, dashes, relays, shot put, triple jump, and broad jump, the girls each competed in varied contests. Miss Betty Hightower guided her team against tracksters from Cameron, Rockdale, Georgetown, and Temple. They also competed in the district and regional meets.

Golfers Had Fine Season

The members of the KHS golf team are: left to right, Gary Boydston, Keith Fergus, Chuck McDonnold, Bobby Franklin, Van Holbrook, John Bressler, John Little, Jim Roach, Steve Roberts, Hector Rosario.

Keith Fergus poses with second and third place finishers after he won the Temple tournament.

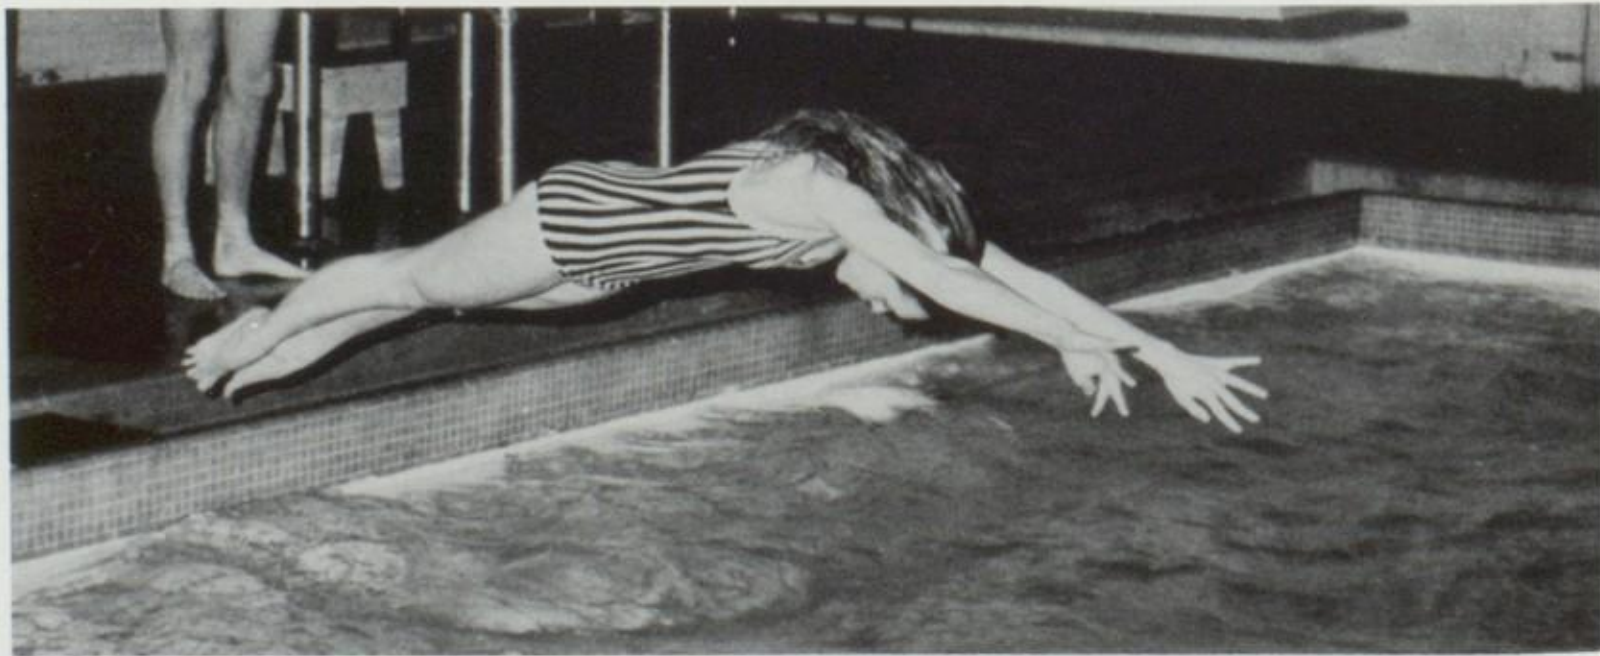

Beginning practice in early fall on the Killeen Municipal Golf Course, the KHS golf team obtained hope for the '72 season. Eight returnees from last year, combined with coach John Little, gave the golfers an outstanding program. The Roos were headed by Senior Keith Fergus, who had a strong early season showing by taking medalist honors in Temple. Participation in the district match was the highlight of the year for the golfers.

Practice Leads to

Traveling to Mary-Hardin Baylor during the week, the KHS swim team kept in shape for their meets. They were coached by Bob Woford, in only their second year as an established sport. The team, composed of five girls and five boys, competed in meets in the early Fall and Spring.

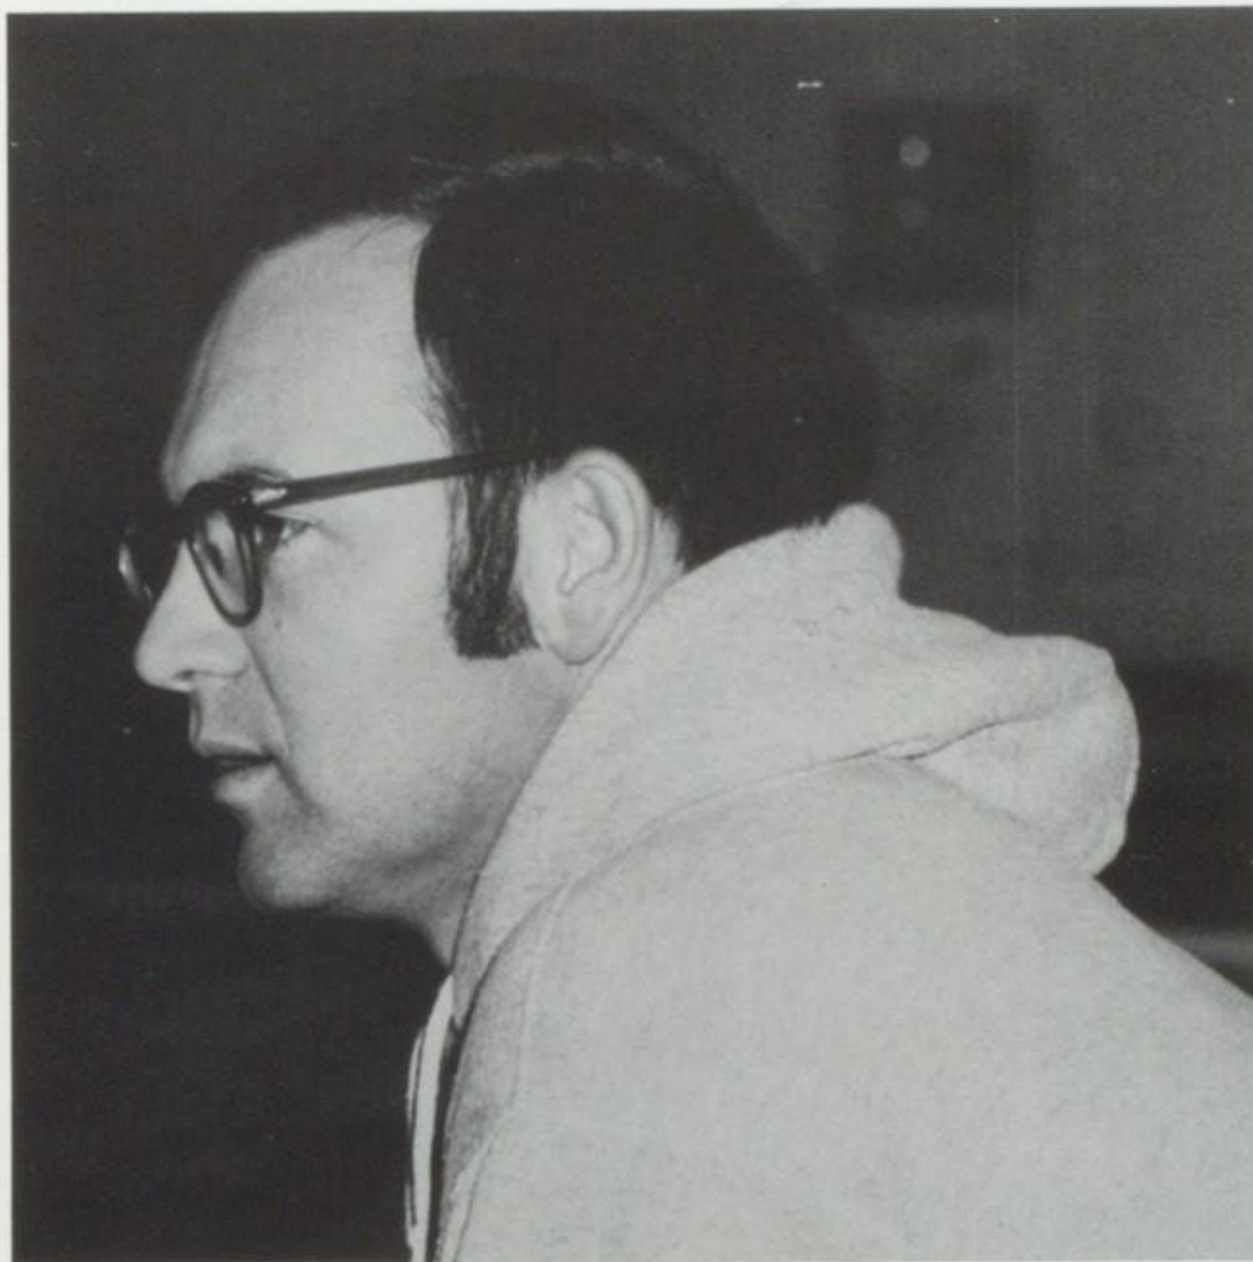

The members of the swim team are: top to bottom, Hank Ecroyd, Ray Harris, Steve Rawlings, Mike Reilly, Randy Perlis, Karen Lanza, Kathy Kenney, Dee Smith, Cyndhi Hughes, Chris Wilson.

Kathy Kenney exhibits the correct form for entrance into the water.

“All for Killeen

Tension, delight, or disappointment was reflected in the faces of the KHS cheerleaders throughout the season. They were often the facial thermometer of the event, game, parade, or pep rally. Cheerleaders began late in the summer in preparation for the long fall schedule. They attended Cheerleading Camp at Sam Houston State University. Football season meant decorating floors, painting signs, and planning pep rallies. Cooperating with the Key Club, the cheerleaders help plan and execute a down-town pep rally in the mall prior to the Corsicana game. Basketball season found the devoted cheerleaders leading the Roo netters to victory. This spring was the time to look forward to the future with spring tryouts. The cheerleaders spent many hours helping the aspiring candidates. Mrs. Helen Hilton acted as advisor and sponsor to the girls this year.

WE THANK YOU.

We have in these three hundred forty-four pages tried to relate to you a period of time. Your yesterdays . . . days of excitement, swelling with pride, throughout an unforgettable football and basketball season, belong to you. We have given you a slice of yesterday's memories in picture form hoping you will furnish the script. We intend for these pages to be the memories of the time you spend drilling for a routine, rehearsing for a production, practicing for a skill or studying to gain knowledge. We can only picture the highlights of this year for you. Please forgive where we have failed. Your yesterdays with their disappointments and their successes are your memories. The beauty and realness of today is up to you. Tomorrow will be what you make it.
